WEBSTER'S

UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY.

10,000 Words and Meanings not in other Dictionaries.

3000 Engravings. 1840 Pages Royal Quarto.

Glad to add my testimony in its favor. [Pres't Walker of Harvard.]

Every scholar knows its value. [W. H. Prescott, the Historian.]

The most complete Dictionary of the Language. [Dr. Dick of Scotland.]

The best guide of students of our language. [John G. Whittier.]

He will transmit his name to latest posterity. [Chancellor Kent.]

Etymological part surpasses anything by earlier laborers. [George Bancroft.]

Bearing relation to Language Principia does to Philosophy. [Elihu Burritt.]

Excels all others in defining scientific terms. [President Hitchcock.]

So far as I know, best defining Dictionary. [Horace Mann.]

Take it altogether, the surpassing work. [Smart, the English Orthoepist.]

A necessity to every intelligent family, student, teacher, and professional man. What Library is complete without the best English Dictionary?

WEBSTER'S NATIONAL PICTORIAL DICTIONARY,

1040 Pages Octavo. 600 Engravings.

The work is really a gem of a Dictionary, just the thing for the million.—American Educational Monthly.

STREETS, PLACES, SQUARES, ETC.

The list which follows has been carefully prepared, and embraces changes lately made by the city government in the names and locations of the public streets. Other alterations may seem desirable and proper; but due regard should be had for residents and property holders concerned, whose titles may become confused, if old and familiar highways and avenues are made strange by a new christening.

A little study of our map, in connection with this list, will acquaint the reader with many varied and interesting features of the entire city; and besides being most useful in business, will add to the pleasure of the daily drive or walk, or bring to the children a better knowledge of home geography. Thus shall the Directory be, more than ever, a help to every household:

Alden, from Hancock to Eastern avenue.

The Springfield Directory

FOR 1871-2,

WILL, the publishers believe, be found especially full and valuable. With the names of all householders, business or professional men and women, are given, in most cases, their new street numbers. Thus the exact location of a store, office, shop, front door of residence, or public entrance up stairs, is indicated plainly, and can be found at once. No need of stopping to ask and answer questions, and wait upon door-bells. Simply look in the Directory. Just now, of course, when old numbers are being removed and new ones put on, people are sometimes perplexed, and can not tell, perhaps, what their own number or their neighbor's is, until they see the Directory. But once accustomed to the change, and its advantages will abundantly compensate for a little temporary inconvenience.

The old numbers were few, and not uniform. Sometimes there were two numbers alike for widely separated places on the same street. The method of locating people by their block did not answer, in some instances, where the very occupants had forgotten what the block was called! Thus strangers were misled, and citizens even, in a population of thirty thousand people, could not readily find one another. Now, all the streets are numbered by the city government, and maps of them made, on which every twenty feet is marked and described. The cost of putting the new numbers on all the buildings at this time is small—fifteen cents a figure—and when it is once done, there is no probability of a change.

The new streets added to the city, changes in old ones, locations of public buildings and objects of interest, are shown on the map which accompanies this work. Its increased size indicates how much the city "enlarges its borders" in a single year.

Special pains have been taken to make the Directory reliable and complete. The difficulty of canvassing for names, while the streets were being re-numbered, has been greater than could have been anticipated. Considerable ground was necessarily gone over a second time, because, after the names had been obtained, many new numbers were changed on account of errors in measuring, sometimes through an entire street. Where householders have lost their cards or have poor memories, figures for them have been supplied from the city's maps; if, then, mistakes are found, the usually careful map-makers, and not the Directory, are accountable for them. Thus the publication of the work has been seriously delayed. But to have issued it earlier, without correcting the street numbers, or supplying omissions in them, would have made the book less valuable, and limited its circulation.

Springfield in 1871.

THE CITY'S GROWTH—ITS FUTURE PROSPECTS—A GLANCE AT THE PAST—NEW BUILDINGS.

INDUSTRY and trade have prospered in Springfield the past year, and the future is full of promise. The new enterprises started this season involve in the aggregate a very large outlay, and will make business lively here, as well as benefit the neighboring towns.

Ward One, which has increased largely in population and wealth the past five years, will soon be the center of large manufacturing operations. Beyond the Memorial Church, on the railroad west of Dr. Holland's residence, the Wason Manufacturing Company have recently purchased the farm of J. H. Demond and other land in this vicinity, making in all some seventy-two acres, exceedingly well adapted for building purposes. On this they have commenced the erection of works much larger than those they now occupy, and when the new buildings are completed, will remove their entire business there. Other large concerns will also locate near by, and some of them will engage in manufactures not now carried on in Springfield. A large number of mechanics, most of them heads of families, will then be employed here, and house-building will be brisk. This section of the city is to be called Brightwood.

A lot has been bought on Elm street for over $50,000, on which it is proposed to place the new court-house. It is possible, even now, however, that the location may be changed, if a more desirable site can be secured. The plans for the building have been made, and it is expected to cost about $150,000. It will be a fine specimen of architecture, substantially built, well arranged for light and ventilation, fire-proof, and affording accommodations long needed for the various departments of county business and the courts.

The Union street Methodist Church have purchased a lot on the corner of State and Myrtle streets, on which they will erect a house of worship, costing, with the ground, about $60,000. The North and the Episcopal Churches also propose to put up new structures at no distant day, the former on Salem street. There is also a probability that a Baptist Church will be built in Ward One, and another in Ward Seven, in the near future.

D. O. Gilmore is erecting a fine business block, adjoining his present one on Main street, to cost $60,000. Other blocks are also begun, or soon will be, on Harrison avenue, Bridge and Worthington streets. As detailed descriptions of these and other new buildings appear on another page, it is only necessary to mention them here, as part of the work done in a single season.

Smith & Wesson are building a large shop and store-house, and adding to the capacity of the one they now occupy. At the south end, a large shop is nearly completed on Hanover street, to be occupied probably by the American Corrugated Iron Company.

The Bemis & Call Tool Company are also erecting new works, to replace those recently destroyed by fire.

New dwelling-houses appear in almost every direction. Nearly one hundred will be completed this year. An unusual number are of the best class, and will be occupied by the owners. Some of these residences are as "beautiful for situation" as they are complete in design and furnishing. Springfield offers rare advantages for the location of fine houses upon commanding positions, with delightful surroundings. Business and professional men, retiring from active life elsewhere, are thus drawn here, to make their homes and lay out a portion of their fortunes. Hills abound of various forms—round, long or crescent-shaped—and just high enough to afford fine views of the landscape, and lure the observer to their tops; even the plains reveal singular phenomena, exciting curiosity; while quiet retreats, sparkling brooks, ponds covered with lilies as nowhere else, add rural charms to the attractions of city life. From a wide region of the country around, young people also are constantly coming here to reside. They find not only better wages and more agreeable employment than at home, but also superior facilities for education and social enjoyment. They make a most desirable class of residents often, and are to be considered in calculating the city's future growth.

PROGRESS IN THE PAST TEN YEARS.

While Springfield's advance in the present is rapid, and likely to be more so in the future, its progress in the past ten years is gratifying. The census shows that its average increase in population has been over a thousand a year, during that period. Only three of the sixteen cities in the State have grown more. In 1860, the population of Springfield was 15,199, and the valuation $8,669,806. In 1870, the population was 26,703, and the valuation $24,914,060. The number of polls last year was 6,587; dwellings, 4,090; families, 5,708.

During the past ten years, seven fine churches have been built, costing half a million dollars, and most of the old ones are still used also for religious purposes. Six large, elegant and convenient school-houses have been added to those before existing, at an expense to the city of $250,000; the investment is most profitable, however, and the schools are excellent and well appreciated, for ninety-three per cent of all the children of school-age attended them the past year.

Our city library has been gathered, most of it, during the period we are considering, and is now one of the largest and best-selected for popular use in the country. It contains over 32,000 volumes, and new works of popular interest are constantly being added to the various departments. A catalogue of the books has just been published, the preparation of which has required much labor, research and patience on the part of the librarian and his assistants. But it enables subscribers at once to find what they want, and will be appreciated by all readers. The museum, which is connected with the library, attracts many visitors, and is yearly increasing in value and interest. While the city library was necessarily closed for a time, the service it has rendered the community, in promoting a taste for literature, was shown by the number of excellent circulating libraries that came into being at once, and the liberal patronage these have received. The new city library building is a handsome specimen of architecture, and cost, including the ground, about $100,000. An engraving of it has been prepared for this year's Directory, and will be found on another page, with a detailed description.

Fine business blocks completed each season testify of the taste and wealth of their owners, and the increase of trade. Among structures of this class, of which any city might well be proud, we may mention the granite building erected and partly occupied by the Powers Paper Company and the Agawam National Bank, the iron front block of the Messrs. Bill, the granite building containing the offices of the Boston and Albany Railroad Company, the blocks erected and occupied respectively by the Springfield Institution for Savings, the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company, the First and Second National Banks, the lately remodeled Foot's block, the new Music Hall, Haynes' Hotel block, Barnes' and Union blocks, the beginning of Hurlbut's block, and a long list of others only less costly and elegant.

Many of the streets have been macadamized, some sixteen miles of sewers have been built, gas is used in nearly all the dwellings as well as public buildings, pure water is supplied, and the street railway is a popular and established institution.

While capital reaps a fair return, industry prospers, and land owners are happy, the accumulations in the savings banks are significant facts. In 1860, the three savings banks of the city had little more than one million one hundred thousand dollars, and the two largest had thirty-five hundred depositors. Now, the sum of their deposits is over six and a half millions; and the oldest one alone had the past year 13,562 depositors, of whom 7,544 were for small sums, and 3,683 opened new accounts.

RAILROADS.

The one great secret of the steady growth of Springfield is its importance as a railroad center. The Boston & Albany Railroad, two hundred miles long, with a capital of $20,000,000, forming a link in the most important line west from Boston, passes through the city from east to west, and has its principal offices here. The Springfield, Hartford & New Haven Railroad, with $6,300,000 capital, finishes the southern connection, and, with the Boston & Albany road, forms part of the most popular through route between New York and Boston,—one the metropolis of the whole country, and the other of New England; and the Connecticut River Railroad, with $1,700,000 of capital, takes the traveler northward, up the beautiful valley of the Connecticut, to connecting lines that will carry him to any part of northern New England or Canada. Three more new roads—the Springfield & Longmeadow, the Springfield & Farmington Valley, and the Springfield & Athol—are chartered, and will be completed in a few years, perhaps months. These new roads, while they are never likely to become important as through lines, like the roads already existing, are still sure to be valuable adjuncts to the present roads, and to bring tribute to the business of Springfield. Our city is already one of the most important railroad centers of New England, and with the new roads completed it will have facilities for travel and transportation that will make it still more desirable for residence and business of all kinds. A new iron bridge will soon be finished by the Boston & Albany, across the river here, and probably the plans for a new depot will then be taken up. The work has been delayed by the necessity of making it large and locating it so as to serve, if possible, all the railroads now here or that are soon coming.

MANUFACTURES.

Counting each firm as one person, there are three hundred manufacturers here, employing over four thousand men, and over one thousand women and children. The United States Armory ranks first upon the list, as it has heretofore; but there is an increasing number of other large establishments, each employing nearly as many hands, taking the year through. Thus, according to the census, over 600 persons are employed in making railroad cars; nearly 1,000 in manufacturing cotton and woolen goods; over 300 on pistols and firearms; 155 on harnesses, saddlery, etc.; 154 on paper collars; nearly 150 in foundries; 95 on gold chains; 90 on watches; and so of a multitude of different branches of manufactures. Then, too, we have 202 carpenters, 69 masons, 37 house-painters (probably more), 76 tinners, 205 brick-makers, 25 bakers, and 162 tailors. Skilled workmen are in the majority, and not a few Springfield mechanics are successful inventors, and some have become the heads of large concerns, whose products go to all lands.

It would be impossible to mention in detail all the manufacturing interests of Springfield,—they are so numerous and varied. We must refer readers to the advertisements of each concern, elsewhere. The list would embrace railroad cars, bridges, cotton, woolen and rubber goods, paints and chemicals, fire-arms, swords, cartridges, watches, jewelry, gold pens, clothing, candy, carpeting, water filters, soda fountains, toys, games, children's carriages, corks, paper collars and boxes, envelopes, books, trunks, spectacles, skates, hand stamps, and a thousand things, almost, besides.

TRADE.

The wholesale business of Springfield merchants is estimated at twenty millions a year, and the retail trade is very large. Springfield is the natural business center of a wide area of territory, containing many thrifty towns. People come a long distance to do their shopping here, and the general verdict is that nowhere can they do better for their money. May the time never come when our dealers have a less honorable and generous reputation than now. A very good idea of the business of the city may be gained by reading the brief cards scattered through the list of names in the Directory, and the advertisements preceding and following them.

AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE.

There are 158 farmers in Springfield. Some of them wield a large capital, in real estate. Two on Main street still hold, for agricultural purposes, a considerable piece of land, which would sell readily for $1,000 a front foot, allowing 125 feet depth. They have put in a substantial fence with heavy granite posts lately, and evidently mean to stick to their business at the old place. Two miles out, farms are rated at $1,000 an acre. They yield good crops,—a ton of tobacco to the acre, near the river. On one farm of 110 acres, the value of the products for a year is reported in the census at $8,625, the market garden bringing in $1,800; three horses and twenty head of cattle were kept, and 9,124 gallons of milk sold. The owners know how to manage a farm as well as "keep a hotel." On another farm, some distance from the thickly settled portion of the city, the proprietor gives attention to stock-raising; and besides five horses and forty-three head of cattle, reported two hundred and forty-nine swine. Not many raise tobacco; the "weed" needs too much care. Cabbages pay better, in one man's opinion, and he produces acres of them, realizing quick sales and good prices.

Grapes, pears and small fruits, flowers and vegetables, thrive here, on the rich bottom-land. From his garden, one of our pastors has presented more than twenty varieties of pears at a horticultural fair.

OLD LANDMARKS.

Springfield was first settled by people from Roxbury, Mass., in 1634. It bore its Indian name of Aguam or Agawam until 1740, and then was called Springfield, in compliment to William Pynchon, the magistrate and leading man, who had lived in Springfield in England. The land was bought of the Indians; their deed may still be seen; and peace was kept with them nearly forty years. On one occasion, a few years after the first settlement, when famine threatened the people, the red men sailed down the Connecticut from Deerfield, with a fleet of fifty canoes, bringing a supply of corn. There was an Indian fort on Long Hill, and during King Phillip's war, the savages came thence and burned all of the town except three fortified houses. One of the latter, the first brick structure in the valley, stood until 1831, and its picture is shown on our city seal.

Our fathers were church-going people. Clocks being scarce, the hour of worship was announced by beat of drum for half an hour; at Northampton, a trumpet was blown for the same purpose. People who did not go to church were punished by the law; and Daniel, a servant of Thomas Merrick of Springfield, for "idle watching about and not coming to the ordinances of the Lord," was adjudged to be worthy of stripes to the number of five, well laid on. Boys were restless sometimes, it seems, for a vote was passed in Hadley, in 1671, "that there shall be some sticks set up in the meeting-house in several places, with some fit persons placed by them, to use the same as occasion shall require, to keepe the youth from disorder."

Men are still in active business who remember Main street as a "corduroy road," and that the other thoroughfares were the road to Boston (now State street), Meeting-house lane (Elm street), Ferry lane to the upper landing (Cypress street), Bridge lane (Bridge street), the lane to the lower landing (York street), the road to Chipmuck (Carew street), and the present Water street.

Near the corner of the present Sargeant and Main streets, Mr. Stebbins kept a hotel in 1775, and the building was removed a few years ago to another street, and still does good service as an eight-tenement dwelling-house. A hotel kept in old times by Mr. Williams on the present Court square, now stands near the west end of Court street. The building occupied as a court house before the present one was built in 1822, is now a carriage shop, corner of Berlin and Sanford streets. Most of the old landmarks are gone, but from aged citizens much valuable information might be gathered concerning our early history.

NEW BUILDINGS.

From the quiet ways of the past to the stirring life of to-day, the transition is obvious, in the new buildings on so many streets. The more noticeable of those raised this season are described below:

CHILDREN'S HOME—CHAPEL—SCHOOL-HOUSE—BUSINESS BLOCKS AND SHOPS—THE NEW WASON WORKS—HANDSOME RESIDENCES.

Of the new buildings completed or commenced the present year, none have interested so many people, here and elsewhere, as the Children's Home. The credit of its construction is due to the ladies of Springfield, though those in neighboring towns have assisted. The gentlemen, of course, have seconded their efforts with wise counsel and generous subscriptions, though a considerable portion of the necessary funds was raised by a Fair held at the City Hall, the past spring. Major Ingersoll presided; and the attendance and success were matched only by the grand Soldiers' Fair, held at the same place, in the dark days of the war. The people came together as by a common impulse of sympathy for a noble object; and while nothing objectionable was resorted to, over $8,000 were realized for the Home. The building is on Buckingham street, near State. It is of brick, two stories high above the basement, with French roof. The main part is 50 feet on Buckingham street, by 40 deep, and the ell in the rear is 28 by 30. There is a piazza in front and one each side of the ell. On the first floor are the reception parlor, library, sewing-room, dining-room, kitchen, pantries, etc., all conveniently furnished. The second floor contains the girls' dormitory, 17 by 38 feet, a nursery room and hospital apartment, and a large bathing and wash-room; also the boys' dormitory and bath-room, and apartments for the matron and attendants. On the third floor are dormitories, and also a tank holding 1,000 gallons, filled with rain water from the roof, or from a force-pump, and supplying all parts of the house. In the basement are the laundry, with four sets of soapstone tubs, a forty-gallon copper kettle, and a drying-room; also a play-room, 18 by 38 feet, for the boys, as well as rooms for coal, furnaces, etc. The lot, which was presented by the Messrs. Tapley, Haynes, and McKnight, is 150 by 300 feet. The building and fixtures cost nearly $20,000.

The building committee were D. H. Brigham, Gurdon Bill, Horace Kibbe, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. William Rice and Mrs. Charles Merriam. A. Mayo was the contractor; D. J. Curtis did the mason work, and David Warner the painting.

The First Methodist Church, on Florence street, are building a chapel 72 by 58 feet, and containing a large lecture-room and two class-rooms. It is connected with the church by a small building, containing a pastor's study and class room. The doors are so arranged that seats in three of the rooms in the new building command a view of the pulpit in the church, and thus accommodate any overflow of the congregation from the latter. The chapel will cost about $6,500, and Rice & Shannon are the builders.

The new school-house on Central street will be ready for use the coming fall. It is the sixth large grammar school building completed by the city since 1865, and while all are models, each one in succession embodies new features of excellence. The Central street school-house will be a story less in hight, and cost less than the others, but will accommodate 450 scholars. It is very pleasantly located, built of brick, two stories high, with mansard roof. The main part is 90 by 60 feet, and the two ells are each 10 by 25 feet. There are nine school-rooms, a recitation room, and a hall on the upper floor 60 by 58 feet. The rooms are 14 feet high in the clear. C. L. Shaw is the builder; E. J. Piper puts in the furniture; and the total cost will be about $41,000.

D. O. Gilmore is building a large addition, southward of his present block, at 324 Main street. The new part is 45 feet wide by 152 deep, and five stories high, besides basement and sub-cellar. The front will be of Philadelphia brick, with iron and Portland stone trimmings. There will be two stores, and, in all, one hundred rooms. Many of these will be taken in suits for families. The building will be well finished, warmed throughout by steam, and cost about $60,000.

Emerson Wight has commenced a block of five stores, on the north side of Worthington street, near Main street. It will be of brick, with iron trimmings, 180 feet long and 45 to 56 deep, four stories high, and with mansard roof.

Park Warner is building, on the corner of Bridge and Dwight streets, a brick block, 31 by 72 feet, and three stories high, with mansard roof. It will contain three stores and six tenements, and cost about $10,000, besides the lot. Norman Akins is the contractor.

Patrick Fitzgerald is building on Bridge street, corner of Stearns' park, a brick block, 40 by 60 feet, and four stories high, including basement. There will be three stores in it, besides offices and dwellings, and the cost will be about $30,000, including the lot. Perkins & Gardner, architects.

On the corner of Worthington street and Stearns' park, Patrick Fitzgerald is also building a brick block of stores and dwellings, 60 by 62 feet, and four stories high, including basement. The cost is $35,000, without the lot. George E. Page, carpenter; D. J. Curtis, mason.

On Harrison avenue, a brick block of stores is soon to be commenced by Patrick Fitzgerald. It will be 50 by 60 feet, three stories high, with mansard roof, and cost $18,000, besides the lot. George E. Page, builder; M. Curtis, mason.

E. J. Avery has nearly completed, at 56 Main street, a brick block, 42 feet by 52, four stories high, with French roof, and containing two stores and six tenements. Norman Akins, builder.

At Indian Orchard, corner Main and Oak streets, a brick block, containing three stores, besides dwellings, has just been completed for O. E. Tilley, Dr. Noyes Barstow, and the Goff Brothers. It is 40 by 70 feet, three stories high, with mansard roof, and cost $12,000, without the ground. Kent & Morgan, carpenters; Howe & Whittemore, masons.

Smith & Wesson, on Stockbridge street, are building an addition to the central portion of the front of their large pistol shop. The new part is a tower, 40 feet by 32 on the ground, and five stories high, besides a basement. The main entrance to the establishment is here; the first floor is for office room, and is finished in black walnut, as is also the stairway; and on the sixth floor there is a large water tank, for protection against fire. In the rear of this shop, a new building is being erected, 182 feet by 45, half of which will be used for a forge shop, and the other half, which is two stories high, for storage, and for the carpenter and stocking shops. All of the wood work in the factory will be transferred to this building as soon as completed. These additions will give an opportunity for the employment of 50 or 100 workmen in addition to the present force of 275, and the new hands will be set at work as soon as practicable. The company are filling an order for 20,000 army revolvers for the Russian government, and have many other European contracts. The cost of the new shop and the addition to the old one will not be far from $20,000. Chauncey Shepherd, builder; Spooner & Topliff, masons.

We have mentioned the purchase by the Wason Manufacturing Company of seventy-two acres, west of Dr. Holland's grounds, and the new village of Brightwood that is to come up there. The movement is an important one, and business men will be interested in the full details we give of the plans. The new shops to be built here by the Wason Manufacturing Company will have a capacity at least one-third larger than those of any similar establishment in the country, and will probably cost over a quarter of a million dollars. The foundation walls for part of the shops will be laid this season, and the buildings erected next year. The paint shop is to be 500 feet by 75, one story high, and capable of holding thirty-two first-class passenger cars. There will be a two story building for wood-working machinery, 250 feet by 75; and directly in connection with this, an erecting room, 110 feet by 75, and one story, with deck roof. In the rear, but central to these buildings, will be placed the engine and boiler, in a separate and fire-proof building. Close by the erecting shop will be a two story machine shop and pattern room, 42 feet by 75, and two stories high. In connection with the last, there will be a smith shop, 42 feet by 175, one story high, with deck roof. A foundry will be conveniently near these two, and will be 167 feet by 62, one story, with deck roof. Back of the foundry will be sheds for coal, sand and flasks, and yard for iron. The dry house will be double, 65 feet by 35, and fire-proof. The office and store room will front on the Connecticut River Railroad track from the west side, and all the buildings are to be north of Wason street. An iron transfer table, 42 feet long, to which will be attached an engine of eight horse power—a new thing designed by their superintendent, W. H. Paige—will receive the cars at the railroad and convey them to the different shops and lumber yard, a distance of 1000 feet. West of the buildings will be two large lumber sheds, each 250 feet by 40, and capable of holding 1,200,000 feet of lumber each. The paint shop, offices, wood-working shop and lumber sheds will be wood, and the other buildings brick; and the whole, with the transfer track and lumber yard, will occupy sixteen and a half acres. Only the stock and machinery of the old shops will be brought here, interrupting the regular business not more than four weeks. Upwards of 400 skilled workmen, most of them heads of families, find steady employment in the shops of this company. Two passenger cars, and from eighteen to twenty freight cars are finished weekly, besides the founding of from two to three hundred car wheels and from sixty to seventy tons of castings. The officers are: George C. Fisk, President; H. S. Hyde, Treasurer; George T. Wason, Secretary; John J. Moore, Cashier; W. H. Paige, superintendent of car department; Samuel W. Ladd, superintendent of foundry, and H. E. Emery, assistant superintendent; Directors, George C. Fisk, H. S. Hyde, George T. M. Davis, George T. Wason, S. W. Ladd.

There is a prospect that a company will soon be organized to erect shops for building locomotives, near the new works of the Wason Manufacturing Company.

D. L. Swan is building, on Hanover street, a shop 40 feet by 104, and three stories high. It will cost about $7,000, and will probably be occupied by the American Corrugated Iron Company. B. F. Farrar does the mason work.

John Olmstead is building a shop on East William street in connection with his paper stock works. It is 22 feet by 44, and will cost about $5,000. Joyce & Burnham do the carpentry, and D. J. Curtis the mason work.

On State street a handsome house is to be finished the coming winter for the residence of the bishop and clergy of St. Michael's cathedral, and near the latter edifice. The house is built of brick, with brown stone facings, and is 50 feet by 104, two stories high, with French roof. It will contain twenty-seven rooms, and cost about $35,000, not including the ground. Michael Curtis of this city is the contractor for the mason work, and James Carroll of Worcester, for the carpenter work.

On Thompson street, A. Mayo is building for J. D. McKnight a two-story house, with mansard roof. It is 28 feet by 30, with ell 20 by 26, and bay windows, and costs $7,000, without the lot.

At 91 Maple street, an elegant house is nearly completed for H. A. Gould, from designs by George Hathorne of New York. It is of a modified gothic style, built of brick, with brown stone trimmings, and has sharp roofs, fret-work gables, a two story porch in front, three bay windows, and verandahs upon all sides. The extreme width is 64 feet and the depth 84. There are three wings, while an ell extends in the rear, making the interior pleasant and well-lighted; and the rooms are finished in hard wood throughout, and furnished with every convenience. W. S. Buxton is the builder, and the cost will be about $25,000, aside from the lot.

O. H. Greenleaf is building a fine house on Crescent hill, from plans furnished by George Hathorne of New York, the architect of our City Library. It will be two stories high, with sharp roof and gables, the main part being 48 feet by 52, and the ell 30 feet by 35. The lower story is 12 feet high, and the upper 11. There are bay windows for the parlor, sitting-room and library, and a porch and verandahs in front. The underpinning and steps are granite, and above this the house is to be built of Philadelphia pressed brick, with trimmings of Cleveland stone, the windows being French plate glass. The cost may be "guessed" at over $30,000. C. S. Ferry, superintendent; Howe & Whittemore, masons.

Another elegant house is soon to be commenced west of Mr. Greenleaf's, on Crescent hill, for J. G. Chase. It is to be built of brick, with Cleveland stone trimmings, and will be 40 feet by 60, two stories high, and cost not far from $40,000. Vaux & Withers of New York are the architects. The location has rare natural advantages, and affords views of the river, the city and the adjacent country, not elsewhere surpassed. Fred. Law Olmsted is to lay out the grounds here, and also those of several of the neighboring proprietors.

Edmund Jobson, at 327 Chestnut street, has just finished a brick house with stone trimmings, two stories high, 41 feet by 42, with octagon extension 5 feet by 16, and ell 22 feet by 25. It is built in the French gothic style which has prevailed for some time in England, and more lately come into use in Boston and New York. There are seventeen rooms, four of which have octagon ends. Light is abundantly secured, and heavily fringed verandahs on both sides afford shade. The house is painted lilac, while the verandahs, etc., are of a brilliant vermillion hue. It is at once noticed from Main street in looking through Greenwood street, and gives an impression of comfort and good cheer within. Perkins & Gardner were the architects; C. S. Ferre the builder; and Spooner & Topliff the masons.

At 76 Elliott street, a house has just been completed for W. L. Wilcox, from designs by Perkins & Gardner. It is of a modified gothic style, and 75 feet by 38. Besides a bay window, there is an octagon projection 5 feet by 15, rising as an octagonal tower four feet above the roof, while the porch in front is surmounted by a square tower; and the roofs and tops of the towers are ornamented with iron crestings. The rooms within are finished in hard wood, and the windows are of plate glass. The cost is about $15,000, without the lot. Joyce & Burnham, builders; B. F. Farrar, mason.

At 70 Elliott street, a pretty cottage villa is being built for Warner Sturtevant, from original designs by Currier & Richards. It is two stories high, and the greatest width is 50 feet, and the depth 70. It has many projections, is finely ornamented, and at once attracts the admiration of tasteful observers. No other house in the city resembles it, and no two sides of this are alike. A two story porch rises in front; there are bay windows, with balustrades, upon two sides, and an oriel window in the second story; and the numerous hoods have a light and graceful appearance. Inside, the rooms below and part of those above are finished in hard wood, and they will be warmed by steam. The cost will be about $20,000, besides the lot.

At 51 Federal street, S. D. Porter has a new brick house, 36 feet by 42, two stories high, with mansard roof. There is a bay window on one side, an octagon extension on the other, and a verandah along the entire front; while from the entrance hall a porch rises conspicuously above the roof, with a fine observatory in the upper portion. Chauncey Shepherd was the architect and builder, and the cost was $18,000.

At 43 Federal street, Edwin McElwain has a new two story house, 34 feet by 40, with ell 22 by 20, and mansard roof. There is a verandah the whole length of the front, a bay window on the side, and a two-story porch rises above the front entrance, ornamented with iron crest-work, as is also the roof. The interior is finished in hard wood, and the exterior is painted in colors. Like the one at No. 53, this house has an inviting appearance, and a fine prospect. Its cost was $15,000, and William Hendricks was the builder.

A brick house, with brown stone trimmings, is nearly completed for Samuel Bigelow, on Elliott street. It is 36 by 38 feet, with wing 21 by 22, two stories high, and has a mansard roof. The cost is about $11,000, exclusive of lot. Perkins & Gardner, architects; E. W. Shattuck, builder; Royal Harrington, mason.

On the south side of Mattoon street, B. F. Farrar is building a block of four houses, of brick, with Cleveland stone trimmings, swelled fronts and rear, and with basement, sub-cellar and mansard roof. Each house is 34 by 41 feet, and the four will cost $30,000, exclusive of ground. Perkins & Gardner are the architects. East of this block, Mr. Farrar has just completed another, of similar materials, 100 feet front, 40 deep, with mansard roof, and also containing four dwellings. The cost is $40,000, besides the lot.

On the north side of Mattoon street, C. C. Moulton and A. B. Howe are erecting a block of fine houses, three stories high, with mansard roofs, and somewhat different in style from any heretofore built in Springfield.

H. W. Phelps has a house nearly finished opposite the United States Armory on State street. It is built of brick, with Portland stone trimmings, two stories high, and has a mansard roof. The main part is 28 by 39 feet, with two wings, each 7 by 19 feet, connected by a verandah in front. There is an ell in the rear. Chauncey Shepherd, architect.

Rufus Chase is building a brick cottage, with brown stone trimmings, on Madison avenue. It is 44 feet square, and will cost about $9,000. Perkins & Gardner, architects.

O. W. Wilcox is building a house on the corner of State and Buckingham streets. It is 40 feet square, with an octagon extension 8 by 16 feet, two stories high and mansard roof, and has an ell 20 by 24 feet. The cost will be about $12,000, exclusive of the ground. Perkins & Gardner, architects.

William Birnie has a brick double house begun, on Byers street. It will be 53 by 40 feet, two stories high, with basement, mansard roof, and two-story bay windows, and cost $12,000. Perkins & Gardner, architects.

On Spring street, B. F. Farrar has built for himself and J. F. Tapley a double house, 38 by 46 feet, two stories high, with French roof, basement, and an ell, 30 by 25 feet. It is of brick, with freestone trimmings, has two-story bay windows, and costs about $14,000, exclusive of lot.

P. P. Emory has a two-story house, with mansard roof, nearly completed, on Spring street. It is 31 feet deep, 24 front, and 6 feet wing, with an ell 17 by 26, and costs, without the ground, about $7,000. L. C. Sheldon, builder.

A two-story Swiss cottage for J. R. Hewitt is begun, on the south side of State street, east of Hancock. It is 25 by 35 feet, with a wing 7 by 18, and an ell 20 by 24. The cost will be about $5,500, besides the lot. W. S. Buxton, builder.

On Lincoln street, L. C. Sheldon is building a two-story French roof house for M. W. Bridge. It is 25 by 30 feet, with a wing 7 by 15, and an ell 22 by 28. There will be a two-story bay window, two verandahs and a porch, and the cost will be about $6,000, without the lot. Mr. Sheldon is building another house, on the same street, for Henry Gates. It is of nearly the same size as the other, and resembling it in external appearance, but costing only about $4,500, without the lot.

At 126 Thompson street, Porter Cross is building for himself a two-story house, 28 by 40 feet, with ell 25 by 28, and costing about $6,000, exclusive of lot.

On Main street, corner of East William, B. F. Farrar has recently finished a double house, one-half of it for J. A. Eldredge, and the other for himself. It is built of brick, with freestone trimmings, and is 38 by 50, with basement, French roof, and three-story bay windows. The cost was $16,000, exclusive of lot.

B. F. Farrar is building a double house, for Mrs. David Bush, at 563 and 565 Main street. It is of brick, with freestone trimmings, 50 by 45 feet, two stories high, with basement and swelled fronts, and will cost not less than $15,000, without the ground.

On Bradford street, a double house is begun for W. H. Wilkinson and Henry Clark. It is of brick, with brown stone trimmings, the main part 46 by 31 feet and the ell 28 by 36, two stories high, and with mansard roof. There will be two-story bay windows each side, a porch in front, and a verandah each side of the ell. Several of the rooms will be finished in hard wood, and the windows will be of French plate glass. E. W. Shattuck is the builder, and the cost will be $14,000, without the lot.

At 40 Main street, D. A. Davis is building for Calvin B. Stebbins a brick house, with stone trimmings, and French plate glass windows. The main part will be 48 by 30, and the ell 19 by 26 feet.

On Elm street, Currier & Richards are building a two story French roof house for A. M. Knight. It is 44 by 48 feet, contains twenty-eight rooms, with all the modern improvements, and will cost $8,000, besides the ground.

At 81 and 83 Bliss street, Rice & Shannon are building a first class four tenement house, the eastern half for Addison W. Browne, and the western for L. H. Black. The main part is 44 feet by 32, and the ell 34 feet square, with piazzas both sides of the ell, and also in front of the building. The house is two stories high, with mansard roof, and has four two-story bay windows, and other modern improvements. The cost, without the lot, is about $10,000.

On Greenwood street, near Main, H. J. Wales is building for himself a two story house, with mansard roof. It is 40 feet by 41, and will cost $8,000 besides the lot.

On State street, near Buckingham street, Currier & Richards are building a two story house for H. K. Simons. It is of the Grecian style of architecture, 36 feet by 39, and will cost about $6,000, exclusive of the lot.

Fire Districts, Etc.

The following is the city ordinance establishing a fire district, and regulating the construction and moving of buildings therein:

Section 1. All that part of the city of Springfield lying and being within five hundred feet of either line of Main street between Howard street on the south and Cypress street on the north, and within two hundred feet of Main street between said Cypress street on the south and Bradford street on the north, is established a district within which no person nor corporation shall erect, construct, or place, or cause to be erected, constructed, or placed, any wooden building or any part thereof, unless the same shall be of the size hereinafter described, namely: not to exceed the dimensions of eight feet square upon the ground, or if of any other dimensions, not to cover a surface of more than sixty-four superficial feet, the walls or sides thereof not to exceed ten feet in height from the top of the sills to the eaves.

Sect. 2. Any person or corporation may affix to any building which now is or may hereafter be lawfully erected or placed within said district, any shed or sheds open on one side and not exceeding fifteen feet in depth, measured from the side of the building which they join. The highest point of the roof of such shed not to be more than fifteen feet from the ground—provided, however, that no such shed shall be erected or placed within said district unless the roof thereof is covered with fire-proof covering.

Sect. 3. Any person or corporation may move any wooden building in said district from any place therein to any other place within the same, but not to a point nearer Main street than the same originally stood, written permission therefor having first been obtained from the mayor of the city, and such permission shall be given by the mayor only in pursuance of a vote of the city council.

Sect. 4. Whoever violates any of the provisions of the foregoing ordinance shall forfeit and pay for each offense a sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

Fire Alarm Telegraph.

How to Give Alarm for Fire—Unlock the nearest box, pull down the hook once to the bottom of the slot, and let go. This gives the desired alarm all over the city, repeating itself five times. Remain by the box a moment after giving alarm, and if no clicking is heard in the box, pull again; if you still hear no clicking, go to the next nearest box, and give the alarm from that. Be sure the box is locked before leaving it.

Caution—Never pull the hook while the bell or gong in the box is striking. Never touch the hook except to give an alarm of fire. Never signal for a fire at a distance, nor for a chimney. Inform yourself of the location of boxes and keys near you. Keys are in possession of responsible citizens near each box, and the police and officers of the Fire Department.

MASSACHUSETTS, by the census of 1870, has a population of 1,457,351, of whom 1,104,032 are native born, and 353,319 foreign born; the colored persons and the Indians number only 13,189. There are 340 towns and 16 cities, and the total population of the latter is a little more than 620,000, three-quarters of whom are native born. In 1865, the census showed the population of Massachusetts to be 1,267,031; voters, 246,182.

The valuation of this state, by the census of 1870, is $1,684,000,000, against, $1,009,709,652 in 1865. The actual wealth of our people is, however, much greater. Allowing for undervaluation of property by town assessors, and for that exempt from taxation and so not reported, and the grand total must be over twenty-two hundred millions, giving as the average for each man, woman and child in the State over $1,500,—larger, probably, than in any community of equal area in the world. And no where else, perhaps, is it so largely distributed to all. We have but few paupers, and most of those come from abroad.

Churches.

Location—Pastors—Time of Meetings—Membership—Historical Facts.

First Congregational Church—Court Square, between Elm and Court streets. Founded 1637. Rev. E. A. Reed, pastor; settled June, 1871; salary, $3,500. Deacons, Benjamin Eldridge, (retired,) John R. Hixon, Roderick Burt, Elbridge Brigham, Charles H. Smith, Samuel R. Newell, Henry Morris. Superintendents of Bible Service, W. J. Holland, Nelson C. Newell, and A. L. Leonard.

Meetings—Sunday, at 10¼ A. M., (with preaching,) 2¼ P. M., (Bible service and Sunday-school,) 7 P. M., (Prayer.) Monday night, young people's prayer-meeting, 7½ P. M.; Wednesday night, teachers' meeting, 7½ P. M.; Thursday, female prayer-meeting, 3 P. M., and church prayer-meeting at 7½ P. M. In summer, the evening meetings begin half an hour later Sunday, and a quarter of an hour later other nights.

This is our oldest church, and but one year younger than Springfield. It has had few pastors, those preceding the last one having averaged a term of thirty-six years each. The former pastors were: Rev. George Moxon (1637–1652), Rev. Peletiah Grover (1661–1692), Rev. Daniel Brewer (1693–1733), Rev. Robert Breck (1736–1784), Rev. Bezaleel Howard, D. D. (1785–1809), Rev. Samuel Osgood, D. D. (1809–1862) Rev. Henry M. Parsons (1854–1870).

The number of resident members is 602; and the average attendance at Sunday morning service is over 600; benevolent contributions the past year, $2,900; total raised for church purposes, $7,500. The Sunday-school numbers over 525, with an average attendance of 350; contributions from its members the past year, $800. None of this sum was used for expenses, but a Sunday-school commissionary in California received $500, a gift was sent for the "Morning Star," and poor children at home were clothed and cared for, as is also done by the other churches.

The First Church Annual is to be published early in each year, giving the pastor's New Year's sermon, a resume of church work, the Sunday-school reports, and other matters of interest.

Olivet Congregational Church — State street, opposite Armory grounds. Founded in 1833. Rev. L. H. Cone, pastor; settled in 1867; salary, $2,500. Deacons, William A. Spooner, B. F. Quinby, E. A. Hubbard, George Dillingham. Sunday-school superintendent, B. F. Quinby; assistant superintendent, Homer Merriam.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10½ A. M., (Bible service and Sunday-school;) 2½ P. M., (preaching;) 7 P. M., (prayer;) Monday night, young people's prayer-meeting, and on Thursday night, church prayer-meeting, at 7½ P. M. in winter and 7¾ P. M. in summer.

This church is the second in age of its denomination in the city. Of the nineteen original members, but five are now living, and only three are still connected with it. The present membership is 266, of whom 239 reside in Springfield. The contributions for benevolence the past year were $1,141, and $1,000 was raised for recarpeting the house of worship and vestry.

The Sabbath forenoon is given to the Bible service, (Sunday-school,) in which the pastor takes an active part. This is well attended, especially by the young, numbering 355, and averaging 205; and many of the older people, who are necessarily kept at home in the morning, are accommodated by the afternoon preaching. The average congregation is 400.

A temperance revival commenced here last year, and spread to the Union street and Florence street churches. Several Christian women, sympathizing with one of their number in trouble, presented a petition to the officers of the Olivet church, signed by 117, asking help to save victims of intemperance. In response to this appeal, the Springfield Temperance Union was organized. It aims to work in a Christian spirit, and has met with gratifying success. Inebriates have signed the pledge, and kept it. Homes bare of comfort and blighted by strong drink before, are now gladdened with abundance and bright hopes of the future. Mothers are less anxious, whose boys have promised "never to use any intoxicating liquor as a beverage."

South Congregational Church — Bliss street, near Main. Founded in 1843. Rev. S. G. Buckingham, D. D, pastor; settled, January, 1847; salary, $3,000. Deacons, Erastus Hayes, Henry A. Robinson, A. F. Cowles, O. W. Wilcox. Sunday-school superintendent, Rev. J. L. Graves.

Meetings—Sunday, at 10½ A. M., with preaching; 2½ P. M, in winter, 3 P. M. in summer, Sunday-school; 7 P. M. in winter, 7½ P. M. in summer, missionary concert first Sunday of the month, Sunday-school concert second Sunday of the month, and prayer meeting on other Sunday evenings. Thursday night, church prayer meeting, at 7½ P. M. in winter, 7¾ P. M. in summer, followed by a teachers' meeting.

This church had but one pastor before the present one, Rev. Noah Porter, who was dismissed in 1847 to accept a professorship in Yale College. The membership is 383; average attendance on the Sabbath, 350; benevolent contributions the last year, over $8,000. The Sunday-school numbers 230.

The mission Sunday-school gathered by members of this church, near corner of Union street and Eastern avenue, numbers 250, with an average attendance of over 200. Hope Chapel, its house of worship, was completed last year; the library contains 700 volumes; and H. S. Lee is superintendent, Hubert Haskell, secretary, and Frank Homer, librarian. There is also a meeting here, with preaching by different pastors of the city, at 6 P. M., every Sunday evening but the second in the month, when there is a Sunday-school concert; and a prayer meeting is held Wednesday evenings, at 7½ P. M.

The Long Hill Sunday-school, numbering 90 members, with S. D. Burbank as superintendent, has aid and a majority of its teachers from the South Church.

North Congregational Church—West side of Main street, between Worthington and Bridge streets. Founded in 1846. Rev. Richard G. Greene, pastor; settled in 1866; salary, $3,500. Deacons, E. G. Norton, O. D. Morse, J. W. Hawks, L. S. Stowe. Sunday-school superintendent, H. S. Brooks.

Meetings—Sunday, 10½ A. M., 7 P. M. from October to March inclusive, and 7½ P. M. from April to September inclusive—with preaching; missionary meeting on the first Sunday evening in each month, church prayer meeting, Thursday night at 7½ P. M. from October 1 to April 1, and at 7¾ P. M. from April 1 to October 1. The communion service is at 2½ P. M. on the first Sundays of January, March, May, July, September and November.

This church was organized with twenty-two members, and held meetings at first in Frost's Hall on Sanford street. The pastors preceding the present were: Rev. Raymond H. Seeley, D. D., dismissed to take charge of the American Chapel at Paris, France; Rev. James Drummond, removed by death; Rev. L. Clark Seelye, dismissed to accept a professorship in Amherst College. A colony of fifty-five members from this church was organized into the Memorial Church, October 27, 1865.

The membership of the North Church, May 1, 1871, was 391, about 100 of whom were absent or non-resident; and about 50 members of other churches are regular communicants here. The number of separate families represented in the parish is 225; parishioners, regular or irregular in attendance, about 1,000; usual congregation, about 400. The Sunday-school numbers 314. The annual expenditure is not far from $5,500.

A lot has been purchased on Salem street, nearly opposite Elliot, on which a new house of worship is soon to be erected, but the plans for it are not yet completed.

The Sunday-school on York street is partly sustained by the North and partly by the First Church, and numbers 50. J. M. Cowan of the former church is superintendent. It meets on Sunday at 2¼ P. M.

Congregational Church at Indian Orchard—Rev. Stephen Harris, pastor; settled June, 1871; salary, $1,200. Deacon, Jacob S. Eaton. Sunday-school superintendent, Andrew Woodman.

Meetings—Sunday, 10¾ A. M. and 2 P. M., with preaching; Sunday-school at 12 M. Prayer meeting at Library Hall, Friday evening, at 7½ P. M.

The church membership is 24. There is a good congregation, and the Sunday-school numbers 87, with an average attendance of 72. The house of worship is pleasantly situated upon a hill overlooking the village, and back of it and on either side is a fine grove, where out-door services have been held in the warm season.

Sanford Street Congregational Church (colored)—Sanford st. Founded in 1849. Pulpit vacant. Mr Isaac Tembrook of the New York Union Theological Seminary preaches every Sabbath for the present, and it is expected that Rev. Mr. Van Horn of Newport, R. I., will be settled as pastor the coming autumn. The deacons are John N. Howard, I. J. Baptist and John H. Thompson. Sunday-school superintendent, Eli Baptist.

This church was originally Methodist, and the pastors, while it was connected with that denomination, were Revs. Leonard Collins, John N. Mars, George Spiwood, Daniel Vandever, John A. Williams, Samuel Gray, Robert R. Morris, William Butler and James A. Jones. In 1864, the church reörganized as Congregational, and Revs. W. W. Mallory and Samuel Harrison have been the subsequent pastors. The number of members is 36; average congregation, 100; members of Sunday-school, 60, and average attendance, 45; benevolent contributions, $32. Some outside aid is received.

Memorial Church, Union Evangelical—Round Hill, junction of Main, North Main, Bradford, and Plainfield streets. Organized October 29, 1865. Rev. W. T. Eustis, pastor; settled June 2, 1869; salary, $4,000. Deacons, J. D. Stratton, Joshua Grant, D. J. Bartlett, A. F. Niles. Sunday-school superintendent, Dr. J. G. Holland.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10¾ A. M. and 3 P. M. in winter, and in summer the second service is at 6 P. M.; every second Sunday in the month, the second service is one of praise. Sabbath-school, 11¾ A. M. Prayer-meetings, Sunday and Thursday evenings, in the chapel; young people's meeting, Wednesday evening. Social meetings on alternate Friday evenings. The lesson of the Sunday-school is usually the subject of lecture, Thursday evening.

North of the Boston and Albany Railroad, there was a large population, but no house of worship, nor regular preaching, when this church was formed. It has done a missionary work here. Many of its members were from the North Church; some came also from other religious societies. The help of the children was assured when Scattergood Sunday-school came in. The latter had been started in 1861 by a Methodist lady, and largely sustained by the Pynchon Street Church.

The membership is about 200; the average congregation, 600; and the Sunday-school numbers about 450. The whole district north of the railroad is visited by the Sunday school teachers, and all children not connected with any other Sunday-school invited to attend.

The house of worship was built of Monson granite, in the gothic style, costing about $120,000.

Church of the Unity, Unitarian—East State street, above Maple street. Founded in 1819. Rev. Charles A. Humphreys, pastor; settled, November 29, 1865; salary, $3,600. Superintendent of Sunday-school, F. S. Bailey

Meetings—Sabbath, 10½ A. M., 7½ P. M. Strangers are shown to seats five minutes before the morning service and ten minutes before the evening service. Sunday-school immediately after the morning service.

This church was formed of a number of members who left the First Church because they held more liberal views than the pastor. They were incorporated as the "Third Congregational Society of Springfield." Jonathan Dwight, one of their number, gave to the society a meeting-house, built at his own expense, and of such dimensions and elegance as they directed. Other members subscribed sixteen thousand dollars, as a permanent fund for the support of preaching. The pastors preceding the present one were: Rev. William B. O. Peabody, Rev. George F. Simmons, and Rev. Francis Tiffany.

The society is represented by 200 families and over 700 parishioners. The church membership is about 100; average congregation, 400. The Sunday-school has 130 pupils.

The present house of worship was completed and dedicated early in 1869, and cost $150,000. It is of the Italian-Grecian style of architecture, and built of brown stone from the Longmeadow quarries. The audience room is 85 feet long and 54 feet wide, with walls 30 feet high on the inside; back of this is the chapel or Sunday-school room, 55 feet long and 24 feet wide. A tower rises from the the north-west corner, terminating in a spire, whose point is 144 feet from the ground, and all of stone. For situation, style of finish and general appearance, this church edifice ranks among the finest in the country.

Christ Church, Episcopal — State street, near junction of Chestnut and Maple streets. Founded in 1838. Alexander Burgess, D. D., rector, from November 28, 1869; salary, $3,000 and use of rectory. Wardens, J. B. Stebbins and R. B. Hildreth; vestrymen, J. D. Brewer, E. S. Allin, Francis Norton, R. G. Shumway, James D. Safford, Clark W. Bryan, and Charles Ely; clerk, J. H. Morton; treasurer, J. D. Safford.

Meetings—Sunday 10½ A. M., 7½ P. M. On the first Sunday afternoon of every month, the four mission Sunday-schools assemble at the church with the home school there, for catechising. Meetings are held in the chapel, Wednesday at 10 A. M., Friday at 7½ P. M.; and on two evenings in each month, there is one for teachers.

Meetings held in the chapel at the United States Armory, and afterwards at the Town Hall, resulted in the organization of this church. The rectors, prior to the settlement of Dr. Burgess, were: Rev. Henry W. Lee, now Bishop of Iowa; Rev. Henry W. Adams; Rev. Abram N. Littlejohn, now Bishop of Long Island; Rev. William S. Child; Rev. George H. McKnight.

There are about 310 communicants, and 200 families in the parish. Five Sunday-schools are sustained; one at the church, with 250 members, John B. Stebbins, superintendent; and Bible class of 80; St. James mission Sunday-school, meeting at Oak street school-house, John Thonger, superintendent; St. Peters, meeting at Central street school-house, J. Louis Stebbins, superintendent; St. Johns, meeting at Auburn street school-house, J. E. Shipman, superintentdent; and one at the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, West Springfield, Charles Ely, superintendent. The mission Sunday-schools number 175 members. The sum raised for church purposes, the past year, was $12,000, and $3,000 charitable offerings. A new stone church, to accommodate nine hundred persons, will probably be commenced before another year.

First Baptist Church—Corner Main street and Harrison avenue. Founded in 1811. George B. Ide, D. D., pastor; settled, October, 1852; salary, $2,500. Deacons, Harvey Foster, John E. Taylor, Isaac E. Williams, H. C. Martin, George A. Lawrence. Sunday-school superintendent, Frank M. Tinkham.

Meetings—Sunday 10½ A. M. and 7½ P. M.; Sunday-school, immediately after the morning service. Monday evening, young people's meeting, and Thursday evening, prayer-meeting, the two last, at 7½ P. M. in winter, 7¾ P. M. in summer.

This church was organized with 19 members, at the Water Shops, and struggled for years in poverty and feebleness, without pastor or house of worship. Its first church edifice, built in 1821, was near the Water Shops; the second, built ten years later, was at the corner of Maple and Mulberry streets; the present house was completed in 1847. The church has since greatly prospered, and a colony of 143 members was dismissed from it in 1864 to form the State Street Baptist church.

The membership of the First Baptist is 475; average congregation, 450; total contributions the past year, $6,053, of which $1,951 was for benevolent purposes; $1,075 of the latter sum was for the aid of poor churches in the county. The Sunday-school numbers 325, with an average attendance of 175. The mission Sunday-school in Carlisle district has 40 pupils and teachers from this church. A Baptist Sunday-school has also lately been established in Emery street school-house, starting with 44, and E. J. Avery is superintendent. Among the liberal things devised by members of the First Baptist, is the building of a new church for those of their faith in ward one, and another in ward seven. Funds are already assured for one of these enterprises.

State Street Baptist Church—State street, opposite Dwight street. Organized in 1864. Rev. A. K. Potter, pastor; installed, January, 1865; salary, $2,500. Deacons, Nathan G. Corning, John H. Lawton, Alpheus Hawkes, Jonas H. Hastings, David M. Chapin, Andrew Titus. E. F. Foster, clerk and treasurer. Sunday-school superintendent, D. H. Brigham.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10½ A. M., 2¼ P. M., with preaching; 7 P. M., prayer-meeting; Sunday-school immediately after morning service. Monday night, young people's prayer-meeting; Wednesday night, teachers' meeting; Thursday night, church prayer-meeting. There is also a prayer-meeting on Tuesday night at Central street ward room. The hour for week-day meetings is 7½ P. M. in winter, and 7¾ P. M. in summer.

This church was formed of a colony from the First Baptist. In the beginning, its motto was "work," and it made the Sunday-school a prominent feature. It has had a marvelous growth. The church membership is 539; average congregation 650; number in the Sunday-school, 841, average attendance over 500; total raised for church purposes the past year, $13,164. A temperance department has been organized in the Sunday-school the past year, and has 450 members, who circulate the pledge and have occasional public lectures.

First Methodist Church—Corner Florence and Hancock streets. Founded in 1815. Rev. C. D. Hills, pastor; salary, not yet determined for the year.

Meetings—Sunday, 10¼ A. M. and 2¼ P. M., with preaching. Prayer meetings, Sunday evening at 7 P. M., Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7½ P. M., in winter; in summer, evening meeting on Sunday half an hour later, and on other days a quarter of an hour later. Sunday-school meets at 12 M., and Charles H. Ladd is superintendent.

The society worshiping here is the parent of the others of its denomination in the city. Asbury Chapel, its former house of worship, was built in 1821, and occupied in two weeks after work was commenced on it; it cost $300. The present house of worship was built in 1866, and cost nearly $15,000. A new bell has been put in the past year, costing $513, a new organ, valued at $2,200, a neat fence around the grounds, and a chapel will soon be completed. The latter will be nearly as large as the church building, and connected with it, and costs $6,500.

The church membership is 140, average congregation nearly 300, and 221 attend the Sunday-school. The sum raised for church purposes the past year was $5,573, of which $578 was for benevolent purposes.

Union Street Methodist Church—Corner Union and Mulberry streets. Founded in 1823. Rev. J. H. Mansfield, pastor; salary, $1,500. Sunday-school superintendent, Joseph Hallett.

Meetings—Sunday, 10¼ A. M., and 2¼ P. M. Prayer meetings are held Sunday evening, 7 P. M., Monday evening (young people's meeting), 7½ P. M., and Thursday evening, 7½ P. M. In summer, the Sunday afternoon service is omitted, and week-day meetings begin a quarter of an hour later. Teachers assemble in the pastor's study Saturday evenings at 8 o'clock.

The church membership is 203; probationers, 16; average congregation, 240. Nearly $4,000 was raised last year for church and benevolent purposes, and in payment of a debt. The Sunday-school numbers 231; average, 185.

A fine lot has been purchased for $18,000 on the east corner of State and Myrtle streets, on which a new house of worship is soon to be commenced for this church.

Trinity Methodist Church—Bridge street, near Main street. Founded in 1844. Rev. J. Oramel Peck, pastor; appointed April, 1870; salary $2,800; Sunday-school Superintendents, M. Wells Bridge and J. R. Childs.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10¼ A. M., and 2¼ P. M., preaching; Sunday-school, 12 M. Church prayer-meetings, Sunday and Thursday evenings; young people's prayer-meeting, Monday evening; class-meetings, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, all at the church, 7½ P. M., in winter, 7¾ P. M., in summer.

This church was formerly on Pynchon street. Though a colony went out from it to form the Central Methodist Church, the old house was too small for the congregation. The new edifice was completed little more than a year ago, and cost, including the land, $73,000. A subscription of $30,000 has just been made by a number of persons, payable in installments during the next four years, which extinguishes all debt for it. For light, ventilation, solidity of construction, and appropriate adaptation to its various uses, it is a model. It is of the "romanesque" style of architecture, rectangular in shape, and is 122 feet long and 74 wide. The tower projecting six feet in front, is 22 feet square, and rises in that form 100 feet, and the spire above the tower is 85 feet to the top of the gilt cross, making a total hight of 185 feet from the sidewalk. In the basement is a vestibule extending the whole width of the church; a vestry, 68 by 70 feet, and 15 feet high; a juvenile Sunday-school room, 30 by 24 feet, opening into the vestry by mammoth sliding-doors; on one side of the latter, a ladies' room, with kitchen below, and on the other side, a gentlemen's room,—all beautifully carpeted and furnished. The audience-room is reached by two broad flights of stairs, and is 96 by 70 feet clear on the floor, exclusive of ample space for the large organ and choir, and the speaker's platform; and the walls are 24 feet high, the extreme hight of the room being 36 feet. Over the upper vestibule are the pastor's study and a committee-room, both handsomely furnished.

The church membership is 400, and there are about 100 probationers; average congregation, 750. The annual current expenditure is about $4,500; benevolent contributions last year, $1,800. The Sunday-school numbers 528; average attendance, 341; contributions the past year, $976; expended for books, papers, etc., $643, and for missions and clothing poor children, $333.

Central Methodist Church—Main street, opposite Bliss street. Founded 1867. Rev. Charles T. Johnson, pastor; appointed 1870; salary, $1,300.

Meetings—Sabbath, with preaching, 10¼ A. M., and 2¼ P. M. Sunday-school immediately after morning service. Church prayer-meetings, Sunday evening at 7 P. M., and Thursday evening at 7½ P. M.; young people's prayer-meeting, Monday evening at 7½ P. M.

This church was organized with a few members from the Pynchon Street Church. The present membership is 116, and there are 50 probationers; average congregation, 175; Sunday-school, 210; raised for benevolent purposes last year, $333. The society own a parsonage, and hold meetings in the house of worship formerly occupied by the Universalist church.

Union American Methodist (colored)—Loring street. Rev. William H. Thompson, pastor; settled, 1871. Sunday-school Superintendent, Edward Williams. Meetings, with preaching, on Sunday, at 10½ A. M., 2½ and 7½ P. M.; Sunday-school at 12 M. The prayer-meeting, Tuesday evening, and class-meeting, Thursday evening are at 8 P. M. The membership is 60; congregation about 150; Sunday-school, 32.

The congregation is largely made up of people from the South. Their chapel was formerly familiar as the Soldier's Rest, near the depot, and was removed here and neatly fitted up. The fence on each side nearly as high as the eaves, shutting out the daylight, and painted black, was not built by the society.

St. Paul's Church, Universalist—Chestnut street, corner of East Bridge street. Founded in 1827. Rev. H. R. Nye, pastor; settled, June, 1867; salary, $3,500; Deacons, George S. Lewis, Sr., William Merriam, William B. Carter; Sunday-school Superintendent, Dr. W. W. Gardner.

Meetings—Sabbath, 10½ A. M., and 7½ P. M. in summer; 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. in winter. Sunday-school immediately after morning service. Friday evening, conference meeting at 7½ P. M. in winter, and 8 P. M. in summer. Saturday evening, teachers' meeting, at 7½ P. M., conducted by the pastor, and well attended.

The former pastors of this church were: Rev. D. J. Mandell, Rev. A. A. Folsom, Rev. R. P. Ambler, Rev. J. W. Ford, Rev. J. J. Twiss and Rev. Josiah Marvin. The society did not erect a house of worship until 1844. This was a plain brick edifice, on Main street, opposite Bliss street, with stores in the basement, and was occupied by the church until it removed to its present location in May, 1869. The membership is now about 125; average congregation, 500; Sunday-school, 260; raised for church and denominational purposes the past year, over $26,000.

The present house of worship was dedicated June 2, 1869. It is built of brick, with free-stone trimmings, and cost, with the site, nearly $50,000. It is 92 feet long, 65 wide, and 42 high from basement to roof apex in rear, with a tower 100 feet high. The audience-room contains 750 sittings, and below is a Sunday-school room which will accommodate 500 scholars, and a ladies' parlor and a sociable room, each 35 by 21 feet.

St. Michael's Cathedral, Roman Catholic—Corner State and Elliott streets. Three churches are connected with it. The one here was founded in 1861. Chief pastor, Rt. Rev. P. T. O'Reilly, D. D., Bishop of Springfield. Rector of Cathedral, Rev. James J. McDermott. Assistants, Rev. M. E. Barry, Rev. Myles O'Reilly. Salary of rector, $800; assistants, $600 each. The church and congregation number about 10,000.

Services—First mass, 7 A. M.; second mass, 9 a. m.; high mass, 10½ A. M.; vespers, 3½ P. M. The Sunday-school meets at the Cathedral at 9 A. M. and 2 P. M., continuing one hour each time; in the forenoon, mass is attended, and in the afternoon lessons are recited. There is an average attendance at the Sunday-school of about 1000 children; P. J. Ryan is superintendent of the male department, and Miss Mary Hart, of the female. The Sunday-school teachers organized themselves into the St. Michael's Sunday School Association, April 30, 1871, to care for the spiritual welfare of the children. President and Treasurer,

Rev. J. J. McDermott, vice-president, Alexander Chisholm; secretary, M. Heffernan. Meet the third Sunday of every month, in one of the rooms of the vestry of St Michael's church. There are 80 members.

St. Thomas' Church, West Springfield is connected with the cathedral; mass, Sunday, at 10 A. M.; membership, 800.

St. Mary's church Longmeadow, is also connected with the cathedral; mass once in two weeks, at 10 A. M.; membership about 150.

A residence for the bishop and clergy is being erected, near the cathedral, and a description of it will be found under the head of "New Buildings," on another page. When this house is completed, a new church will be commenced on Linden street.

St. Matthew's Church, Roman Catholic—Corner Worcester and Pine streets, Indian Orchard, Founded in 1863. Under the pastoral care of Rev. Patrick Healey of Chicopee. Services every second Sunday in the month at 8 A. M.; on the other Sabbaths, at 10 A. M. The membership is about 1000, and there are 150 in the Sunday-school. The latter is held in the afternoon.

St. Joseph's Church, French Roman Catholic—Corner State and Willow streets (old Unitarian Church building). Founded in 1871. Rev. Augustine Laverdiere, pastor; salary, $600. Services on Sunday—Mass at 10½ A. M.; Sunday-school, conducted by the pastor, at 2 P. M.; vespers at 3 P. M.

The members of this church are French Canadian people, of whom there are about 2,000 in this city and 800 in West Springfield, mostly at Mittineaque. Of the 1,200 communicants, 900 reside here, and 300 come over the river. The usual congregation is over 500, and 100 attend the Sunday-school. The church of this name existing last year, became scattered, in the absence of a pastor, and a new organization has now been effected.

Second Adventists, or the Association of Believers in the Pre-Millennial Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ—Chapel on Vernon street. Rev. William N. Pile, pastor; settled, July, 1869; salary, $1,000. Deacons, James M. Currier, Thomas J. Wetherell, B. F. Thompson, James Towle. Sabbath-school superintendent, T. R. Weaver.

Meetings—Sabbath, with preaching, 10½ A. M., and 2¼ P. M. Prayer-meetings, Sunday evening at 7 P. M., Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7½ P. M.

The membership is about 275, congregation, 300; Sunday-school, 100. With free seats and congregational singing, the contributions during the past year amounted to $2,500.

The New Jerusalem Church or Swedenborgians — Founded in 1853. Meet for divine worship Sabbath afternoons at their chapel, No. 3 Maple street.

The Fraternal Society of Spiritualists—Hold meetings in Franklin Hall, Pynchon street, every Sunday, at 2¼ and 7¼ P. M. About 200 attend, and $1,600 was raised last year for the purposes of the society.

The Springfield Sunday-school Association—Organized in June, 1871. Object, to hold institutes and otherwise promote the efficiency of teachers. Officers,—President, D. H. Brigham; Vice-Presidents, Dr. J. G. Holland and W. J. Holland; Secretary, B. F. Quinby; Assistant Secretary, J. L. Hallett; Treasurer, H. W. Boardman; Auditor, L. A. Tifft; Executive Committee, J. D. Stratton, H. W. Hallett, H. S. Brooks, A. J. Pease and S. B. Bartholomew.

Many of our Churches are associated with the others of their denomination in the county for Christian work and culture. The Westfield Baptist Association gathers in convention, the third Wednesday in September each year, representatives of each church of that denomination in the county; their total membership, as reported at the last convention, is 2,755; Sabbath-school scholars, 2,997. The Association will meet this year with the First Baptist Church of Holyoke, the third Wednesday in September.

The Hampden Conference and Benevolent Association represents the Congregational churches of the county, in annual convention. Besides their own support, twenty-seven of the churches, at the last meeting, reported benevolent contributions for the year amounting to $30,176.97. The annual meeting this year is with the First Church in Westfield, the last Tuesday in October.

Church of the Unity—Organist and Director, William B. McClallan; Soprano, Mrs. William B. McClallan; Alto, Mrs. Geo. Fowler; Tenor, Edward Morris; Bass, Penn Tyler, of North Brookfield. The organ in this church is the costliest in the city, the price, including the front, which is very elaborate, being nearly $8,000. It was built by the Hooks of Boston, and set up in the church in January, 1869. There are two manuals, 33 registers, 1,623 pipes, and five combination pedals. This is the only organ in the city blown by water.

Christ Church, Episcopal—Director, Louis Coenen. The choir consists of twenty boys who take the parts of soprano and alto, two tenors and two basses. The organ at Christ Church was one of the earliest built by the Hooks of Boston, and dates back to 1835, when it was constructed for St. John's Church, in Providence, R. I., of which the parish in this city purchased it in 1852. It has two manuals and 24 registers, and was thoroughly rebuilt last autumn.

First Baptist Church—Director, William H. Hawkes; Organist, Miss Ella M. Smith; Sopranos, Miss Genevra B. McLean, Miss Marion A. Spooner; Alto, Mrs. William T. Orchard; Tenor, William H. Hawkes; Bases, F. C. Ross, O. D. Hill. This church has the first Johnson organ erected in Springfield. It has 36 registers and two banks of keys, and was built in 1853 at a cost to the church of $2,500.

State Street Baptist Church—Organist and director, S. E. Packard; Soprano, Miss Ella Sanderson; Alto, Mrs. Charles

H. Woodsum; Tenor, George H. French; Bass, James G. Chamberlin. This church boasts the newest, largest and finest organ in Springfield. It has three manuals, each of 58 keys, a pedal organ of 27 keys, 40 registers, and 1,882 pipes. There are also four combination pedals, besides two other mechanical pedals. This is the only three-banked organ in Springfield. It was built by William A. Johnson, of Westfield, in 1870, and cost $5,000.

Florence Street Methodist Church—Organist and director, E. S. Hoadly; Soprano, Mrs. Angelina Fisher; Alto, Mrs. Charles Prince and Mrs. A. J. White; Tenor, Charles Ladd; Bass, A. J. White. The organ was built by Johnson of Westfield. It has two manuals, twenty-three registers, and two combination pedals, and cost $2,200.

Union Street Church—Director, J. Q. A. Sexton; Organist, E. N. Wood; Soprano, Miss Louisa M. Griffin; Alto, Mrs. K. B. Webster; Tenor, T. H. Stock; Bass, J. Q. A. Sexton. The organ, which has one manual and ten stops, was made by an amateur in Connecticut, and placed in the church in 1857.

Trinity Methodist Church—Director, T M. Dewey; Organist, J. Gilbert Wilson; Sopranos, Miss Eva M. Collins, Miss Mary D. Ladd; Altos, Mrs. Rosa Lathrop, Mrs. Marion B. Rust; Tenors, W. C. Second Adventists—Organist, George Lee. Singing, congregational. A cabinet organ is used.

St. Joseph's Church, French Catholic—Singing, congregational.

The Fraternal Society, Spiritualists—Leader, F. R. Ladd; a melodeon is used, played by Mrs. Law, and there is a choir of ten voices.

Musical Organizations.

Lortzing Eintracht — Organized in 1856. President, J. C. Lutz; Vice-President, Henry Kuehne; Secretary, F. Wiese; Cashier, Gustav Gruendler; Dramatic Director, Charles Spaet. Number of members, 35; place of meeting, Gruendler's Hall, corner of Bridge and Water streets.

Mendelssohn Union—Organized in 1864. President, Charles R. Ladd; Vice-President, Thomas Chubbuck; Secretary, Charles Mulchahey; Treasurer, H. F. Trask; Librarian, J. J. F. Devereux; Trustees, Albert Holt, D. H. Perry, Charles L. Chapin, J. Gilbert Wilson and S. A. Prince; Conductor, A. Whiting. Number of members, 100; place of meeting, Amos Whiting's music room, 13 Barnes' Block.

Springfield Choral Union—Organized in the spring of 1868. President, Thomas N. Newton; Vice-President, M. Weaver; Secretary, J. C. Taylor; Musical Director, Mrs. M. J. D. Hutchins. Number of members, 60; place of meeting, piano rooms of Mrs. M. J. D. Hutchins in Shaw's Block.

The Musical Club—Organized in 1869. President, James A. Rumrill; Vice-Presidents, Charles O. Chapin, Henry F. Trask, Mrs. J. Louis Stebbins; Secretary and Treasurer, Edward Morris; Musical Director, Louis Coenen; Librarian, Miss H. T. Buckingham; Executive Committee, James A. Rumrill, Edward Morris, Louis Coenen, Miss Rumrill, Miss Morris; Musical Committee, Louis Coenen, H. F. Trask, Mrs. J. Louis Stebbins. Number of active members, 25; number of honorary members, 50; places of meeting, at houses of members, by appointment.

Thalberg Union—Organized in 1869. President, Davis Jennings; Secretary, J. D. Sampson; Treasurer, A. Jennings, Director, I. J. Baptist; Organist, H. F. Woods. Number of members, 25; place of meeting, room in Old Post-office Block on Elm street.

Armory Cornet Band—Organized in May, 1860. President, J. H. Kimball; Musical Director, B. B. Dale; Clerk and Treasurer, B. S. Haskins; Standing Committee, George H. Hubbard, E. F. Dunbar, R. D. Carleton. Number of members, 18; place of meeting, band room on the Armory grounds.

Springfield Cornet Band—Organized in 1867, chiefly through the efforts of late Father Galligher. Musical Director, John P. Stack; Secretary and Treasurer, Dennis Callender. Number of members, 18; place of meeting, room on Market street.

Howard's Combination Drum Corps—L. E. Howard, fife major; C. White, B flat cornet; W. S. Bryant, snare drum; Charles White, snare drum; P. Moody, bass drum.

Springfield Conservatory of Music (Established 1864)—Mrs. M. J. D. Hutchins, proprietor and instructor, assisted by an able corps of teachers. Rooms, Nos. 1, 2, and 3 Shaw's Block, Main street. There are about 80 pupils. A piano-forte ware-room is connected with the institution.

Young Men's Christian Association.

Rooms 413 Main street, until September 1, when the Association will remove to the rooms on the second floor of Hurlbut's block, 344 Main street. Strangers and young people, and especially those who have just come to the city to reside, are cordially invited to come in.

The reading-room is supplied with leading daily and weekly papers, secular and religious, and popular magazines, and is free to all. Any service that can be rendered by the committees on boarding-houses and employment, visiting the sick, etc., will be cheerfully done. Short prayer meetings are held at the rooms, Wednesday and Saturday evenings at 8 P. M., and Sunday evening at 6 P. M.

The desire for social enjoyment so natural in the young, has the hearty sympathy of the officers, and efforts will be made to gratify it in various ways, more than heretofore. Evening entertainments are occasionally held at the rooms.

Young people coming to the city find that their subsequent standing and success are determined largely at the outset, by their choice of good associates, care to improve leisure moments, and kind and helpful efforts for others in need.

Nearly one thousand letters deposited in the post-office, from which by mistake stamps were omitted, have been forwarded by the Association. Hundreds of responses have come back, some acknowledging that notices of sickness or death had thus been sent them, and one party received a valuable enclosure, the delay of which would have caused considerable pecuniary loss. More would have been done for the pleasure and advantage of young people at the rooms, if these had been on a lower floor. A desirable change of location in this respect will be effected by the removal to Hurlbut's block, September 1. It is not too much to hope, however, that, in the near future, a suitable building will be erected for the Association. It was organized in 1864, and there are nearly 300 members.

Officers—President, O. D. Morse; Vice-Presidents, H. W. Hallett, C. C. Burdett; Secretary, W. H. Eaton; Treasurer, H. S. Bushnell. Chairman of the committee on boarding-houses and employment, Charles S. Marsh, (J. S. Marsh & Co.)

Ladies' Branch—Organized in 1870. President, Mrs. Emerson Wight; Vice-President, Mrs. A. J. Pease; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. A. M. Butterfield. Mrs. J. F. Chapman (36 Pynchon street), is at the head of the committee on boarding-houses and employment. Cases of sickness among young women in the city, who are yet strangers and in need, should be reported to either of the officers. There are about 140 members. Many girls are employed in shops and manufactories here; but those who come to the city do not readily find work, except as domestics. This Association will render to such all the aid in their power.

Home for Friendless Women and Children.

Officers—President, Mrs. Charles Merriam; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. William Rice, Mrs. S. Merrick; Clerk, Mrs. N. A. Leonard; Treasurer, Mrs. Heman Smith; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. J. R. Hixon; Auditor, Charles Marsh; Advisory Committee, Rev. S. G. Buckingham, D. D., Geo. Walker, D. H. Brigham, O. W. Wilcox, Charles Marsh, A. L. Soule. Applications for admission received at the Home, 23 Union street, on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, from 3 to 5 P. M.

This institution was established in 1865. Its work having greatly increased during the first five years of its existence, it was found necessary to provide more room. A large and commodious house has been erected during the past year, on Buckingham street, capable of receiving fifty or more children, and this is now occupied by children only, the women being still inmates of the old building. About $22,000 was subscribed by the citizens of Springfield for the purpose, and $8,000 more was raised by a fair held in May, 1871, in the City Hall, Springfield, to which several towns in the western part of the state contributed liberally. At the present time the corporation own two buildings and hold real and personal estate amounting to about forty-five thousand dollars.

The work of providing for friendless and destitute women and children can be more successfully carried on by placing them in separate houses. Only temporary cases are received. It is the object of the institution to fit its beneficiaries for future usefulness, and to provide them with employment. During the year ending October 1, 1870, this institution received and cared for 101 persons, of whom 44 were women, and 57 children. It is expected that many more can be received during the coming year, and that the sick, for whom there has been no accommodation heretofore, can be now cared for. The Children's Home on Buckingham street, about half a mile east of the United States Arsenal, is substantially built of brick with stone facings and with a mansard roof. It has all modern appliances for comfort and convenience, and a fine, healthy location. An annual gift of $2,000 has been received from the state for the support of the Home, since it was established, on condition that an equal sum be raised by private donations. The Board of State Charities inspect this institution and receive an annual report from its officers of its expenses, and its work.

The Public Schools.

Superintendent of Schools—E. A. Hubbard. Office, City Hall. Office hours, from 12 M. to 1 P. M. of each school day; Saturdays, from 10 to 11 A. M.

Schools may fairly be reckoned among the attractions of Springfield. For all the children go to them, and many grown-up people, as well. Of the whole number between the ages of five and fifteen, returned by the assessors, nine-three per cent. attended the public schools the past year. Even the small remainder may be accounted for as in the private schools. The adults also crowded Mr. Emery's classes in mechanical drawing, during the winter, and included some old men, and many excellent mechanics. Of the nearly one hundred teachers, there are less than twenty who were not thus employed by the city a year ago. Considering that most of them are ladies, whose aptness for instruction, winning ways and thorough scholarship draw so many pupils, the permanency of their present relation is as creditable to the city as it is profitable for the schools.

Most of the schools are arranged in groups as follows: North Main street group, including all north of the B. & A. Railroad; Elm street group, including all between Worthington and York streets, and between the river and Chestnut and School streets; Worthington street group, including the streets near the depot, and from Chestnut street to the Armory, and from the B. & A. Railroad to State street; Armory Hill group, including the Fifth Ward; Central street group, including Pine street and the Chapel; and Indian Orchard group. Except on Worthington street, each of the large school-houses is occupied by a grammar school, divided into several grades as the different attainments of the pupils require. Around this, in the smaller, old school-houses, are the primary schools of the group. On Worthington street, the grammar school and primaries are in one building.

Children beginning in the primary school, in three years are prepared for the grammar school; here they study five years, rising through successive grades to the High School, where, in four years more, they are fitted for college, or the seminary, and so well fitted that Yale, Harvard and the other colleges have readily admitted pupils from here, and sometimes into advanced classes.

There is an ungraded school on State street, and to this the truant officers, by kind and judicious efforts, gather many children who would otherwise lose the advantages of education.

The truant school is at the almshouse. and numbers over 20 pupils. Juvenile offenders, who might grow up a burden to society and a "curse to themselves," are sent here. The teacher has given head, heart and hands to the instruction of these boys, and the change wrought in their manners and morals is most gratifying. What Superintendent Hubbard said of them in a former report is true now: "No company of boys, more gentlemanly, more manly than these, is seen in our churches, our Sabbath-schools, or on our streets." The present location of this school annoys the aged and infirm poor in the house, and is undesirable in other respects. At a comparatively small expense to the city, a suitable house, farm and workshop might be provided, where, with a matron and teacher, these boys would partly pay their way, have a good home, and form habits of industry.

The training school on State street, west of Main, is found of great advantage to inexperienced teachers, who receive a smaller salary, and are here qualified to fill responsible positions as vacancies occur.

The High School, too large for its building, still occupies a part of the City Hall. Scientific subjects receive more attention in this school than formerly. Apparatus valued at $1,500 is provided for instruction in philosophy and chemistry; and lectures, connected with these branches, are given every Thursday afternoon, and part of the year also on Tuesday afternoons, which are open to the public.

Six large school-houses have been built since 1864, and their aggregate cost is a little over $250,000. They are furnished with all the modern improvements, pleasantly situated and attractive. From the new one on Central street, may be seen some of the finest views in the city. Flowers grow within and without; the yards are well kept, and surrounded with neat fences. Of the good effect of these kindly influences upon the children, even the birds testify, for in the gate post of one school-yard, they have built their nest and reared their young unmolested.

A lot has been purchased on State street, next east of the church of the Unity, on which a new building for the High school is to be erected. Nearly all the school-houses are well filled with pupils, and yet more room is wanted in some localities. No more gratifying evidence could be given of the growth of Springfield. People turn to look at these buildings in passing, as signs of the condition of the schools within; and strangers are attracted here, by the better facilities afforded for educating their children. Expenditures for educational purposes, by the city, the last few years, may have seemed large, but none will yield a better return.

Library and Museum of Natural History.

Located in new Library Building on State street, above Chestnut, and open daily. The number of volumes, June 1, 1871, was 30,159, exclusive of unbound pamphlets. Over 2,500 volumes have been added the past year. The Directors intend to purchase all the new works of popular interest as they appear, and are also continually adding to the Library standard works of permanent value in the various departments of literature, science and art. Subscribers can draw the volumes at once, and exchange them every day at the library hours.

Officers—President, John L. King; Vice-President, Daniel L. Harris; Secretary, William Rice; Treasurer, J. D. Safford; Directors, George Bliss, Chester W. Chapin, J. M. Thompson, George Walker, Charles Merriam, J. G. Holland, James Kirkham, E. W. Bond, John B. Stebbins, Samuel Bowles; Auditors, Charles O. Chapin, R. F. Hawkins. Librarian, Rev. Wm. Rice.

The new Library building (see illustration on opposite page,) ranks among our finest public buildings, and cost, with the land, about $100,000. Its architecture is the modern adaptation of the gothic, prevalent during the middle ages on the continent of Europe, and in England now, and known as the "mediæval revival." The building stands 60 feet back from the sidewalk and 12 or 14 feet above the level of the street. It is 100 feet long and 65 wide. The materials are brick, with trimmings of richly cut and carved light freestone from the Amherst quarries of Ohio, the exterior of the basement being of Monson granite. Two flights of broad granite steps, terminating in an arched stone porch, lead to the entrance hall, on the first floor, 20 feet wide, extending across the entire building. On the right of this is a room for the Museum, 30 by 50 feet, a similiar room on the left for a reading room, and beyond is the Librarian's room. Above the first floor is the Library proper, with a clear, open space in the center, 60 feet long, 20 wide, and nearly 50 high. A series of columns with connecting arches surround this spaceway, and from their capitals spring arched ribs, which meet under the roof above. From these columns radiate in every direction the alcoves and galleries of the Library. Each alcove is 17 feet high, and the galleries extend around the room. Light is admitted through large central sky-lights, 50 feet long, and also by windows in the alcoves, two hot-air furnaces warm the building, and ventilation is effectually secured. George Hathorne of New York was the architect.

During the past year, the Library has been rearranged in its new quarters, and a complete catalogue made and published. The latter is prepared on the dictionary plan, and involved in its preparation a good deal of labor, and a wide acquaintance with books and authors. Seventy thousand slips of "copy" were given to the printer,—each a distinct description of a work. The new catalogue will be very convenient for reference to those who are not familiar with authors and titles, and will be of great service to subscribers in the selection of books.

Among recent donations to the Library, are fine sets of the Musee Française and the Musee Royal, from Miss Mary C. Bryant, who is a daughter of Springfield, and who sent, besides, a gift of $500 in money, in addition to liberal donations previously made to the permanent funds of the City Library Association. Mention should be made, also, of the law library of Col. John Worthington, presented by Mrs. Josiah Hooker,—a valuable collection of books of special interest to antiquarians.

Museum—Curators, R. B. Hildreth, C. A. Emery, C. W. Bennett, J. A. Allen, and Solomon Stebbins. The Museum is now closed for re-arrangement in the new Library building. This institution originated in 1860 with the Library Association, and occupied two rooms in the City Hall. It has about 1,500 species and upwards of 3,800 specimens of shells, classified by Dr. Geo. A. Otis, formerly surgeon of the 27th Massachusetts Regiment; also 9,000 specimens of insects; 900 specimens of stuffed birds; 120 stuffed quadrupeds, including two enormous wildcats, killed in this county; 115 species of fish and reptiles; small cabinets of coral and crustacea; an extensive mineralogical cabinet; a large and very curious collection of fossils; numerous Indian and foreign antiquities, and several flags and various other trophies captured from the Southern rebels by our home troops. Additions are frequently made by the generosity of our citizens. Valuable collections were received the past year from Rev. H. J. Bruce, of India, formerly of this city. Donations for the Library or Museum may be left with the Librarian, Rev. William Rice.

Springfield Gas Light Company.

Organized, 1848; capital, $300,000. President, James M. Thompson; Superintendent, George Dwight; Treasurer, J. D. Brewer. Office in Savings Bank Block, corner Main and State streets. Twenty-three miles of street mains have been laid, supplying that portion of the city between Hooker street and Mill River, and between the Connecticut River and Lake Como. There are about 1,750 consumers of gas, and 300 public lamps; price, $3.50 (including government tax of 20 cents) per 1000 feet.

Hampden County Woman Suffrage Association.

This society has its head-quarters in this city, and holds its annual meetings here in May or June, with prominent speakers from abroad, in its behalf. It seeks to obtain for women an equal chance in education and employment with men; and "would have women take a greater interest in the affairs of social and public life, so that these may be better regulated, while nothing is to be changed that is now right in the relations of the sexes." President, Eliphalet Trask; Vice-Presidents, Mrs. Mary Leonard, Mrs. Maria L. Owen, Dr. J. Church, Samuel Bowles and Rev. J. O. Peck of Springfield; Rev. B. M. Fullerton and C. L. Gardner of Palmer; Mrs. Mary C. Harris, Rev. R. R.

Dickinson; Corresponding Secretary, F. B. Sanborn; Treasurer, Mrs. E. H. Church; Executive Committee, William G. Gordon, Mrs. Mary Leonard, Sanford J. Hall, Mrs. Mary Fassaur, Mrs. M. J. D. Hutchins and Mrs. C. M. Barney of Springfield, and Gordon M. Fisk of Palmer.

The Springfield Aqueduct Company.

Organized in 1848; reorganized in 1864. Capital stock $184,800, with power to increase to $300,000. The two reservoirs in use are east of Armory street; one is near it, north of Morgan road, and holds forty million gallons; the other is more distant from the street, and near the Boston and Albany Railroad, and holds fifteen million gallons. The supply held out here through all the past year, though it failed in neighboring cities. Twenty-six hundred families and about five hundred stores, hotels and manufacturing establishments patronize the Aqueduct Company, and their daily consumption is over a million gallons. Where much water is taken, meters are introduced, and tend to prevent waste. Many people have wells, or draw by pipes of their own from excellent springs on the hillsides. There are several ponds and brooks and two rivers near the thickly settled portion of the city; and the five sprinkling carts need not fear to lay the dust liberally on our streets, when they can so easily obtain water from these sources. A new reservoir, west of Armory street and north of Morgan road, will be completed by the Aqueduct Company, November 1. Its capacity will be more than double that of the others combined. Thus far, the company have laid twenty-five miles of pipe, all of which is cement-lined sheet iron; three miles of it was put in the past year; and the expenditures have amounted to $182,000.

Annual rates for water—dwelling house, for one family, $8; two families, $12; $3 additional for bathing tub. Store or office, $4; hotel, $50 to $250; manufacturing establishments, 75 cents for each employe. Stationary steam engine, not exceeding ten horse-power, $6 per horse power; each additional horse-power above ten, $4. Private stable, for one horse, $4; each additional horse, $2. Livery stable, for each horse, $2; building purposes, $10 for each hundred thousand brick used. Rents due on the first of April and October.

Officers—President and Treasurer, C. L. Covell; Secretary, T. M. Brown; Directors, C. L. Covell, William Birnie, D. L. Harris, Henry Alexander, Jr., T. M. Brown, M. A. Clyde, John Olmstead, Caleb Rice, D. B. Wesson, James Kirkham; Superintendent, Joseph C. Hancock; Book-keeper and Collector, George F. Farmer. Office, 41 Bridge street.

United States Armory.

Commanding Officer—James G. Benton, Brevet Colonel Ordnance Corps; Assistants to Commanding Officer, First Lieutenant Howard Stockton, and Second Lieutenant Henry Metcalf, of the Ordnance Corps; Ordnance Storekeeper and Paymaster, Major E. Ingersoll.

The arsenal, offices, store-houses and principal shops are on nearly the highest ground in Springfield, on State street, and command a fine view of the Connecticut River and the surrounding country. The heavier operations required are carried on at the Water Shops, on Mill River. Probably in no other part of the world has the manufacture of muskets been carried to such perfection. The breech-loader, model of 1868, which is made here, was the combined result of the inventions and improvements applied by the government, and the highest skill displayed by private enterprise. One thousand of these guns, one thousand of the Remington breech-loading rifle-muskets, and one thousand of the Sharps' breech-loading rifle muskets, have been made here the past year, and are now being tested in the field and at the government stations, to determine which is the best. Three hundred carbines each, of the three kinds mentioned, were also made, and are being tried in the same way. That the choice is limited to these, is the decision of the commission of military officers who made careful examination. Twenty thousand Remington breech-loading rifles for the United States navy are nearly completed. In addition to this, a large amount of repairing has been done; and scientific experiments have been made with projectiles, fire-arms, gun material and other matter connected with the manufacture of arms.

The ingenious machinery, the perfect system in every department, and the taste and beauty displayed on the grounds, are the wonder and admiration of visitors from all parts of the world. The successive steps of progress in gun-making may be seen in the specimens of arms made here at different periods, and kept in the museum. Various muskets of other countries are also shown, and there are curious relics from the battle-fields of the War of the Rebellion.

Most of the men work by the piece. The eight-hour law prevails, the working hours being from 7 A. M. to 4 P. M. in summer, and 7½ A. M. to 4½ P. M. in winter. During the war about 3,000 men were employed here, turning out about 1,000 muskets daily, but requiring some portion of the works to be run nights. Nearly 700 men were at work here the past spring, but the force is now reduced.

Springfield Cemetery Association.

Organized in 1841. President, George Bliss; Clerk and Treasurer, F. H. Harris; Superintendent, J. C. Shamp; Trustees, George Bliss, Henry Fuller, A. D. Briggs, Edmund Freeman, Justin Sackett, George Dwight, William H. Smith, W. C. Sturtevant, John L. King. The Cemetery grounds cover an extent of about forty acres, and from their opening in June, 1841, to January, 1871, 7,341 interments have been made in them, 281 of that number being from January, 1870, to January, 1871.

A New Catholic Cemetery has recently been laid out and dedicated, on the Boston road, two miles east of the City Hall.

Dogs.

One thousand and fifteen dogs were licensed in Springfield last year. From the sum thus raised, $1,800 was given the City Library, besides what was paid for sheep killed.

The Alms-house and the Poor.

The alms-house and city farm are on North street, above Bancroft, and are under the care of Mr. and Mrs. James Coffren. From fifteen to twenty poor people are usually supported here. They fare well,—better, perhaps, than many who do not come; comfort, cleanliness and good management are evident. The Truant School is also here, with Miss Elizabeth J. Hale as teacher.

People who are very poor have yet a manly or womanly pride that keeps them from the alms-house. In cases of actual suffering from destitution, application is made to the Overseers of the Poor, and coal and food are given. Temporary relief was thus afforded by the city to over 600 persons the past year, mostly in the winter; $500 was given in coal, and as much more in food.

Travelers who have not means to pay for bed and board, stop over night at the police station, in the basement of the City Hall. Over 2,000 persons have availed themselves of the city's hospitality here during the year. Women and children, as well as men, most of them worthy people, thus found shelter. There is not much chance to sleep, except in chairs; but the room is large, and a good fire is provided all night when it is cold, and numbers do not increase the cost. In the morning, the "guests" have a few crackers, and go on their way, grateful. The increase of patronage here the past year is due to the tramps. These, however, can only tarry for a night. If they appear the following evening, unless detained by a storm, they are taken as vagrants to the county boarding-house on State street, where they can stay awhile and learn a useful trade.

City Hospital.

Located on Boston road, east of the Armory. Superintendent and matron, Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Stiles. Patients pay $5 per week, and have excellent care and good quarters; if so sick as to need extra nurses, an additional charge is made for these, and also for medical attendance.

A Pest-house has been fitted up by the city, near Water Shop pond, for cases of small pox, whenever such occur.

Typographical Union, No. 120.

President, John C. O'Hara; Vice-President, William T. Noble; Secretary and Treasurer, Edward P. Albee; Clerk, Frederick K. Perry; Door-keeper, Jeremiah Buckley. Membership 42. Meetings, first Saturday evening of every month, at 8 o'clock from the first of April to the first of October, and at 7½ o'clock from the first of October to the first of April, at Sons of Temperance Hall, Barnes' Block.

Milk.

There are some thirty-five milk peddlers in Springfield. By a new law of the State, they register their names with the inspector, A. B. Manley, at the City Hall, have a license, and allow him to examine the article sold. Purchasers also bring milk to be tested, and are invited to do so. No charge is made them, and it is not hurt for use. The tests are ample, and chemical analysis may also be made. The results are recorded in a book, which any one may read. The honesty of the dealers is thus demonstrated, and anxious mothers are relieved of fears that children will be made sick by adulteration. In one case, milk was found watered, but on subsequent days the stock was good; so it may be presumed that the water got in by accident.

Jail and House of Correction.

Located on State street, opposite St. Michael's Church. Jailor, J. S. Noble, salary, $1,500; Assistant Jailor, George A. Randall, salary, $900; Chaplain, Rev. William N. Rice, salary, $300. The number of prisoners is variable, usually about 75, a few of whom are females; female prisoners come here for fine and costs, but are sent to Greenfield if the sentence is otherwise. It is believed that two-thirds of the whole number are brought here by intemperance. Those under sentence are employed in making carpet slippers, and turn out about 400 daily. Their labor is contracted for by L. C. Smith, who employs 5 men and 4 women here, besides the prisoners. There is service on the Sabbath, with preaching at 10 A. M., and a Sabbath School, conducted by the chaplain, at 4 P. M.

Kerosene.

Accidents from the use of this oil seem to have ceased in consequence of the new city ordinance regulating the sale of it. Retailers are required to obtain a license to deal in it, and no kerosene can be sold by them, unless it is first inspected, and does not explode at 110 degrees of fire-heat. Our merchants always stipulate that what they have shall be fully up to the standard; and when, in rare instances, a poor lot is sent here, the inspector detects its dangerous character and ships it back, saving all parties from harm. In one case, oil was tested which exploded at 75 degrees.

Hacks.

Every hackney carriage is required to have a license from the city the first of April each year, for which $1 is paid. The number of the license must be conspicuous on the carriage, and also posted inside, with the owner's name and rates of fare. Twenty-nine hacks are licensed, and are owned as follows:—Henry & Marsh, 5; F. & J. M. Richmond, 5; E. C. Robinson, 7; W. B. C. Sexton, 2; P. Hogan, 2; J. Ivers, Thomas Otis, John Kenedy, Luke Hart, Thomas Heniff, Thomas Donnelly, P. Moloney, J. O'Malley, 1 each.

The fares, as prescribed by law, are not to exceed the following rates: "For the conveyance, between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and ten o'clock in the evening, from any point to any point within that part of the city which is bounded southerly by Mill River from its mouth as far easterly as Walnut street; thence easterly by Walnut street as far north as its intersection with Hancock street; thence easterly and north-easterly by Hancock street to Worthington street; thence north-easterly by a straight line extending from the east side of Hancock street where it joins Worthington street to a point in the easterly line of Armory street at its crossing of the land of the Boston & Albany Railroad Company, the same being in the southerly line of the land of said company; thence northerly by a straight line extending from the point last mentioned to the south-easterly corner of the City Farm; thence northerly by a straight line extending due west from the point last named to the Connecticut River; thence westerly by the Connecticut River to the place of beginning,—of a single passenger FORTY CENTS, and when two persons belong to the same party are carried to the same place SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS, for both, and for each additional person belonging to the same party and carried to the same place TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the conveyance of children between the ages of four and twelve years, if more than one, or if accompanied by an adult, half of the above named rates only is to be charged.

"For the conveyance of persons beyond the above named limits special reasonable rates may be charged. The charge for hackney carriages, when hired by the hour between the hours aforesaid, shall not exceed two dollars for the first hour, and one dollar and one-half per hour after the first hour, and for parts of hours after the first hour a proportional part of one dollar and one-half.

"For the use of hackney carriages within the above named limits, or when hired by the hour, between the hours of ten o'clock in the evening and six o'clock in the morning, double the above established rates may be charged.

"Every owner, driver or other person having charge of any hackney carriage shall convey if requested, with each passenger, one trunk and the valise, carpet-bags, portmanteaus, bundles and baskets which may be used by such person in traveling, without charge or compensation therefor, but for every additional trunk so conveyed by him he shall be entitled to demand and receive the sum of ten cents; and no owner, driver, or other person having charge of any hackney carriage shall neglect or refuse the application of any person for conveyance within his carriage, if such carriage be not occupied, engaged or employed at the time of making such application, and if, on demand the legal fare be tendered."

Swine.

For the sake of health and cleanliness, swine are exorcised from thickly settled portions of the city by law as follows: "No swine shall be kept or maintained in the city within the limits of Wards Two and Three, nor in that part of Ward Six which lies northerly of the town brook and westerly of Main street, nor in that part of Ward Four which lies between the Springfield Cemetery and the avenue leading thereto from Maple street on the south and Pearl street on the north, nor in that part of Ward Four which lies westerly of a straight line extending from the easterly line of Byers street, at its intersection with the south line of Pearl street, to the easterly line of Cass street, at its intersection with the northerly line of Liberty street, nor in that part of Ward One which lies between Charles street and Chestnut street, nor in that part of Ward One which lies between Chestnut street and Main street southerly of Carew street, nor in that part of Ward One which lies westerly of Main street and the same extended and called Chicopee street and southerly of John street and the southerly line of the same extended east and west."

Letters too late for mailing at the office, if going east or south, should be deposited in the postal box near the south railroad ticket office; and those going north or west should be placed in the boxes near the north ticket office. These letters are taken by the clerks immediately before the trains leave.

In winter, some slight changes may be made in the hours of opening and closing the mails, etc., if railroad time-tables are so changed as to require it.

Rates of Postage.

Letters—To any part of the United States, 3 cents for each half ounce or part thereof. To Canada and other British North American Provinces, 6 cents per half ounce, if prepaid, 10 cents, if not. To Great Britain, 6 cents per half ounce if prepaid, 11 cents will be collected on delivery, if not. To France, by direct steamer, 10 cents per one-half ounce; via England, 4 cents. To Germany, 7 cents per half ounce by direct mail, or 10 cents via England. To Italy, closed mail 14 cents, open mail 10 cents, via England. To Greece 15 cents per half ounce direct, or 18 closed mail, via England. To Turkey, closed mail, via North German Union, 12 to 15 cents per half ounce, according to destination.

Drop letters, 1 cent per half ounce. Advertised letters, no charge. For registering a valuable letter, the domestic rate is 15 cents; to Canada, 5 cents; to Great Britain, 8 cents. Money Orders, not exceeding $50, as follows: not exceeding $20, 10 cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, 15 cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, 20 cents; over $40 and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

Transient Printed Matter, including newspapers and periodicals (not sent to subscribers,) proof-sheets, book manuscripts, pamphlets, &c., (except books and circulars,) 2 cents for each and every four ounces, if prepaid; if not, double these rates. Seeds and cuttings, &c., sent at these rates, but limited to two pounds. Books require double these rates.

Unsealed Circulars, (to one address,) not exceeding three in number, 2 cents.

No package will be forwarded by mail which weighs over four pounds. All packages of mail matter not charged with letter postage must be so arranged that the same can be conveniently examined by postmasters; or letter postage may be exacted. Any writing other than the simple direction upon an article of printed matter, or the envelope thereof, subjects the entire package to letter postage.

Newspapers—Daily, six times per week, 20 cents per quarter; tri-weekly, 15 cents per quarter; semi-weekly, 10 cents per quarter; weekly, 5 cents per quarter,—in all cases, prepaid.

Weekly Newspapers (one copy only) sent to actual subscribers within the county where printed and published, free.

The following class of letters are not advertised: drop letters, unless a three cent postage stamp is affixed; letters bearing request to be returned to writers if unclaimed; box letters; letters directed and sent to hotels, and thence returned to the post-office as unclaimed, being for strangers; letters returned from the dead letter office to writers; circulars, free packets containing printed documents, speeches, and other printed matter are not advertised. All other letters remaining in the office are advertised on Wednesday of each week; if not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to the dead letter office at Washington.

Places Worthy of Notice from Strangers.

The City Hall, fronting Court Square, erected at an expense of $100,000, ranks among the finest buildings in New England. It has an audience room capable of holding 3,000 persons, and accommodations for all city officers, Police Court, a portion of the High School, etc.

The Cemetery, in the south-easterly part of the city, has its main entrance from Maple street, near its junction with Central street, with an entrance for carriages also from Pine street, and for people on foot from Mulberry and from Union streets. Although within the city, it is so secluded its existence would hardly be suspected by a stranger. On a portion of it, the forest trees still grow, and "Nature vies with Art in producing one of the most charming combinations of hill and valley, stream and fountain, trees and flowers, slopes and terraces, and winding foot-paths and open carriage-ways, imaginable." There are forty acres in the grounds, and the south, part has recently been laid out in lots, and a number of beautiful and appropriate memorials of the dead erected.

The United States Armory, on State street, is described on page 64. Visitors see here the most perfect works for gun-making, great stores of arms, many mementoes of war, (including marks of the fight here in the Shays rebellion,) and views of the surrounding country from the top of the arsenal. Over fifty acres of land are owned here by the government. Near the south-east corner of the fine iron fence, and outside of it, is a quaint old mile-stone, worth looking at, and erected by a man who had lost his way, long before Directories were published.

Hampden Park, north of B. & A. R. R., between the Connecticut River and Fulton street; having one entrance from Clinton street, and another from Plainfield street. Inaugurated September 29, 1857. Purchased and improved by the Hampden County Agricultural Society at a cost of $31,600, for an exhibition ground; "the finest and most convenient location the society could have fixed upon, and unsurpassed for beauty and fitness by any lot devoted to a similar purpose in the world."

Great Freshets.

Highest rise of water in Connecticut River —1801, twenty-one feet six inches; 1843, April 18, twenty feet eight inches; 1854, May 1, twenty-three feet six inches; 1856, August 21, eighteen feet nine inches, (Camp Thompson inundated); 1859, March 20, twenty feet six inches; 1862, April 20, twenty-two feet two inches (Hampden Park flooded); 1865, March 18, eighteen feet ten inches; 1869, April 21, twenty-one feet (Hampden Park flooded); October 4, 1869, twenty-one feet six inches (Hampden Park flooded).

River Navigation.

The steamer Mayflower runs up and down the river, carrying excursion parties from Springfield whenever desired. She is a new, fast-sailing vessel of fifteen tons burden, accommodating one hundred passengers. J. D. Gallup of Agawam is captain, and Lewis Adams, pilot.

The city is part owner in a steam vessel, which makes regular trips to Agawam and back. Small craft are numerous; and when the obstructions are removed between here and the Sound, the commerce of Springfield may be more important.

Sixteen Acres.

This is chiefly a farming community, and is six miles east of City Hall, and two miles south of the Indian Orchard station on the railroad. There are, perhaps, not more than a dozen houses clustered together, with a grist-mill, blacksmith shop, ward building for voting and a school-house near by. Two freestone quarries are in the neighborhood.

Indian Orchard.

This north-east portion of Springfield interests capitalists, pleasure seekers, invalids and business men. It has many visitors, and there is a lively appreciation of real estate. The railroad from Palmer will soon be built here, crossing Chicopee River at "Indian Leap," a little above the village, and passing through it along the river bank to Chicopee Falls. The length of this route will be thirteen miles; the survey is made, and means assured for its construction. The mineral springs here contain unusually large proportions of iron and sulphur, the former element predominating, as is shown by analysis of the State Assayer; wonderful cures are reported, and the fame of their virtues is spreading. Work-people in the mills, who were thin and debilitated when they came, seem imbued with new life by using the waters. Pilgrims seeking health come daily, in carriages and on foot.

The village is on the Chicopee River, one mile north of the Indian Orchard station on the Boston and Albany Railroad, and seven miles from the City Hall. It is laid out with straight, wide streets, crossing each other at right angles, and contains about 1,500 inhabitants. There are two churches, a large new school-house, three dry goods and four grocery stores, one apothecary and one cigar store and manufactory, a post office, two hotels, Library Hall, two cotton mills, one omnibus line, and a horse railroad, reservoir, gas works, etc. Many a Western place has set up as a city with far less than these.

Indian Orchard mills and much of the land in the vicinity are owned by J. C. Howe & Co., of Boston; George O. Hovey is President of the Corporation, and Edward Atkinson, Treasurer, both gentleman belonging to Boston; Chas. J. Goodwin is Superintendent, and A. S. Packard, Paymaster. The mills contain 860 looms and 41,000 spindles, and turn out from 150,000 to 160,000 yards per week of shirtings, denims and sheetings; two kinds of the latter are made, one of standard quality, the other a lighter fabric. Two million three hundred thousand pounds of middling cotton are consumed annually, and the monthly pay-roll amounts to about $17,000. A wise and liberal policy distinguishes the corporation in its dealings with employes, and gives character and permanence to the community. The operatives agree to refrain from intoxicating liquors and profanity, observe the Sabbath, and pay their debts. The corporation have erected Library Hall for the use of the employes, with a reading-room, library and hall that will seat some 300. The library contains about 1,600 volumes, of popular interest and permanent value, and new books are constantly added. The reading-room is supplied during the winter with the Springfield Daily Republican, Boston Daily Advertiser, eight or ten weekly papers, and fifteen monthly periodicals. The employes very generally avail themselves of these advantages. A better class of people are drawn here by them, and induced to settle. Evidence of this is seen in the schools, the houses, yards, lawns and flower-gardens. Formerly the children in the mills failed to attend school, although the law required it. A half-time school was therefore established, and these children induced to go. They work in the mills in the forenoon, attend school till 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and work the remainder of the day; those working by piece earn nearly as much as they did before. There is also an evening school for older people.

The corporation prefer to sell lots only to those who will settle and build up the place, and to their employes. The latter are encouraged to build homes for themselves. Land is sold them at a very low price, and two-thirds the money to erect a house is loaned them for ten years, at a low rate. Several houses were thus erected the past year, and lots are purchased for twenty more. Buyers agree to build within a year, and their deeds prohibit liquor selling forever. A large brick block of stores, with dwellings overhead, has just been completed on the corner of Oak and Main streets.

Water-power is so abundant and land so cheap here, with facilities for conveyance provided, that capitalists can put up establishments with great profit.

The horse railroad connects with all the Boston and Albany accommodation trains.

Railroads in the United States.

The average cost of railroads in the United States, including the great overland lines which cost more than $100,000 per mile, or about 10 per cent. of the total cost of railroads, is $47,277 per mile. But few of the great Eastern trunk roads have cost less than $80,000 to $100,000 per mile, while in the South the cost of railroad building, notably in the Atlantic States, has not exceeded $20,000 to $25,000 per mile. The progress of railroad construction in the United States since 1827, in which year the Granite railroad at Quincy, Mass., was inaugurated, to the present time, is shown in the following table:

PRINTERS' INK IS THE BEST FERTILIZER EVER DISCOVERED FOR A BUSINESS SOIL.

S. R. NILES,

Newspaper Advertising Agent

6 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON.

Advertisements Inserted in the Newspapers of all Cities and Towns in the United States, at Publishers' Lowest Prices.

The Object and Practical Operation of S. R. Niles' Advertising Agency.

FOR MY SERVICES YOU PAY NOTHING. I charge you the same prices as are charged by the publishers. My commission is paid by the newspapers,—not by the advertiser.

THIS AGENCY is one of the many illustrations of the great sub-divisions of labor which are so characteristic of modern methods of doing business. It is a concentration of the Newspapers of all parts of the United States, so arranged and systematized that Merchants, Manufacturers, Traders, and all classes may, with the greatest safety, convenience, and reliability, disseminate business information of every kind simultaneously throughout the entire country.

If you wish to do business, you must tell the public of that fact, and when you have once begun, you must keep telling them of it. Your surest, cheapest and quickest way to tell them is by advertising in the Newspapers circulating among the people you want to reach. Your most convenient and economical way is to hand your advertisement to me, instead of incurring the trouble and expense of communicating with each publisher. From long experience and observation, I can suggest the best papers in which to advertise, show you copies of those best adapted for your business, explain the character, value, and circulation of each, assist you in the preparation of advertisements, ascertain your wishes and explain them to publishers, send your advertisements in proper form, and see that they are promptly inserted, and, in various other ways, aid you to accomplish your object in the best manner and in the shortest time.

S. R. NILES.

☞ THE BOSTON JOURNAL, in calling attention to the removal to new quarters, says:
"Scollay's Building is so nearly demolished that we can begin to appreciate the vast improvement which its entire removal will make in that great center of travel. We doubt if any one who was disposed to find fault with the city authorities for incurring the expense of this great public improvement would have the building put back for double the sum appropriated for its purchase. Passing there yesterday we noticed an old familiar sign, which has been there so long that it has become almost a part of the building itself—that of 'S. R. Niles' Advertising Agency.' For the past twenty years Mr. Niles has occupied rooms there, and has devoted himself to the business of advertising in the newspapers of all parts of the country. During this long time he has not only built up a large and prosperous business, but has gathered to himself hosts of friends who will wish him continued success in his new location, No. 6 Tremont street. Advertising is, in fact, a science, and although it is becoming to be recognized as a primary and unavoidable expense in the prosecution of any business enterprise, and sometimes the only capital in many undertakings, still there are but few who really appreciate its immense importance, or realize the wonder it is capable of performing. When managed with experience, judgment, skill, persistency and liberality, we do not believe there ever was an instance known where it did not yield most gratifying results. From our long business and personal connection with Mr. Niles, we know that he is a master of the art of advertising—that his judgment and advice in advertising may be relied upon—that he has been repeatedly entrusted with the promulgation of great enterprises, and that he enjoys the confidence and respect of the newspaper press and the public to an extent which it is an honor for any man to possess."

☞ No other invention affords so profitable employment for woman. It not only emancipates her from a tedious and time-wasting toil, but it creates for her, at the same time, a New and Independent Occupation. No woman who has tried the resources of her own labor, and found, as she must have found, almost all the avenues to profitable industry closed to her sex, will need to be told that to her such an invention is invaluable.

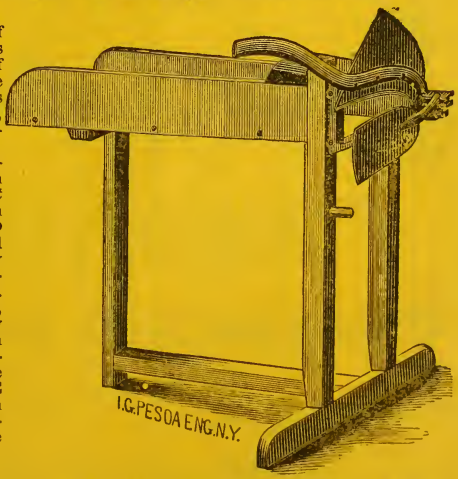
SOLE MANUFACTURERS OF THE

LION PLOWS,

The best smooth land Plow now made in New England, and

The New York Feed Cutter.



All Dealers and Farmers should beware of buying Lever Cutters infringing upon this Patent. Also manufacturers of all kinds of Agricultural Implements, among which are Cultivators of all kinds, Horse Hoes, Share's Tobacco Ridger, Harrows, Corn Shellers, Vegetable Cutters, Road Scrapers and Warehouse Trucks.

We ask particular attention to the SELF-SHARPENING FEED CUTTER, of which we have made and sold over Twenty-eight Thousand, and is more popular to-day than ever before. PERRY'S SHEAR AND LOCK FEED CUTTER, a new Cutter and rapidly gaining in popular favor. One new and valuable feature is its lock, which prevents accidents to children when not in use. The RIGHT-HAND CORN SHELLER, with which one man can shell corn as easily and as rapidly as two with the common Sheller. The CONICAL or SILVER MEDAL PLOW, the best Plow for general use in the market. SMITH'S REVERSIBLE BEAM PLOW, the best Side-Hill Plow in use. WHITTEMORE'S HAND THRESHING MACHINE, a Cheap and Effective Hand Thresher.

Having facilities for procuring the best of timber, we take pleasure in saying that we warrant all goods made by us to be of the best material and workmanship. We invite the attention of Farmers and others needing Agricultural Implements to our stock. Circulars and prices sent on application. Address,

USE RENNE'S PAIN-KILLING MAGIC OIL.

MR. RENNE,

OF PITTSFIELD, MASS.,

In experimenting with RHEUMATISM, has discovered that a certain combination of Oils, with the juices of Plants, forms a Medical Compound which cures all Pain and Inflammation AS WATER QUENCHES FIRE.

He has a large number of Certificates showing the great value of

Pain-Killing Magic Oil,

And the more people become acquainted with its virtues, "THE BETTER THEY LIKE IT." They all say,

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

A FEW LETTERS ARE HERE PUBLISHED.—READ THEM!

HUDSON, N. Y., March 20, 1871.

Mr. WM. RENNE—Dear Sir: You do not recommend your Magic Oil for Catarrh. You ought to, as my own experience proves. It was an accidental (or providential) discovery. The case was aggravated and peculiar, and the cure was speedy and perfect. If you need any vouchers for me I refer to your agents in this city, and to Hon. H. W. Rogers, and J. W. Hoysradt, former Mayor of Hudson. Respectfully yours, CHAS. W. TOMLINSON, Pastor of First Universalist Church, Hudson, N. Y.

ATHENS, Tenn., Sept. 26, 1869.

Mr. RENNE—Dear Sir: I wish to say a word for your Pain Killing Magic Oil. I have been a great sufferer from that awful disease, Sick Headache. It generally attacks me early in the morning, grows in intensity all day, all night, and all the next day, and generally, though not always, goes off during the second night. It comes upon me at least once a month, and often two or three times, always confining me to my bed for about thirty-six to forty hours, and paining me so terribly that it seems as if my head would burst open in spite of skull and every thing else. A person's hand would be thrown entirely off by its throbbing. In short, I suffered agony indescribable. Our best Physicians failed in my case, and I have used most of the popular remedies sold, which are recommended as "sure to cure" just such cases, but they not only failed to cure me, but seemed to aggravate my situation. A few months ago, I fortunately obtained a bottle of your Pain Killing Magic Oil, and as you claim, "It works like a charm!" When I feel my old plague coming on, I use the Magic Oil both externally and internally, freely and faithfully, and now, I do not even have to stop my work, but go about my business as usual.

I assure you one fellow-man has been benefited by your invention, and for which I feel grateful. May God reward you. In my house and family your Magic Oil is as indispensable as flour. I hope my letter may be the means of letting other poor sufferers know the virtues of your Magic Oil, and you may use my name as a reference if you choose.

Gratefully, I am yours, &c., EDWARD A. COBLEIGH.

WM. RENNE, ESQ.,—Dear Bro.: The letter from Edward A. Cobleigh is from my son. He has suffered greatly from Headache, but has recently found a cure by using your Pain Killing Magic Oil. Rev. Bro. Spence, our agent, uses your Magic Oil, and finds relief from the severest Headache! I also use it in my family, and find it excellent in several ailments. I trust you are doing the world good, as well as getting some pecuniary benefit to yourself, with your Pain-Killing Magic Oil.

I am truly yours, N. E. COBLEIGH, President Wesleyan University, Athens, East Tenn.

☞ Please read the following editorial from the Pittsfield Sun, January 7, 1869.

RENNE'S MAGIC OIL—On Monday last, Mr. Jacob Traver, of Hudson, N. Y., a gentleman in his 79th year, an esteemed and influential citizen, and one of the Assessors of that city, called upon us to explain the wonderful effects of Renne's Magic Oil as applied to his own person, and showed us his limb. For more than twenty years Mr. Traver has been afflicted with a sore limb, (his right leg below the knee). Which was very much swollen, and occasionally has been compelled to use a crutch for six months at a time. He had consulted eminent physicians in his own city, and various parts of the country, all of whom told him that the sores upon his leg (sometimes as many as five in number and very deep), could not be healed, and if healed his life would be endangered. An Agent of Mr. Renne having assured Mr. Traver that the Magic Oil would effect a cure, if a cure was possible, he commenced its use, applying it faithfully. He has used some 18 bottles, repeatedly pouring the Oil into the sores and bathing outside; the sores have healed, and Mr. Traver says he feels like a new man, and were his age renewed, he thinks he could indulge "the fantastic toe" as vigorously as in his youthful days. We consider this cure as one that deserves particular mention, and that in calling attention to it we are doing the public a service. Persons similarly afflicted should call upon Mr. Traver if they wish additional facts. He takes great pleasure in commending the article that has been of so much benefit in his case. The physicians whom he had formerly consulted, and who had treated the case, are equally surprised with Mr. Traver at the remarkable cure.

☞ Directions on each bottle. Buy it of the Druggist or Merchant where you trade. If they have not got it on hand they will send for it, at your request, and sell you GENUINE RENNE'S PAIN-KILLING MAGIC OIL, at the Manufacturers' lowest price at retail.

Sold by Druggists, Merchants and Grocers. It is put up in three sizes, and called "Trial Size," "Medium Size," and "Large Family Size" Bottles.

62 JOHN STREET, NEW YORK.

Springfield City Directory.

1871–72.

The names of all members of a firm, as far as ascertained, are in smaller type under the name of the firm, and are also inserted in their place in the alphabetical list.

New Numbers have been applied on the streets, by the city, at the rate of one number for every twenty feet, exclusive of cross streets, and oftener when necessary, so that every separate store, office, dwelling, etc., or entrance up-stairs from the street, has its distinct number.

Even Numbers are on the west or north sides of all the streets.

Numbers Begin at Carew street, for Main and North Main streets; at Cypress street, for Fulton; at the Boston & Albany Railroad, for Water street; at State street, for streets running into it; for other streets running north and south, numbers begin at the principal street from which they run. On streets running from Connecticut River or Hartford and New Haven Railroad across Main street, the numbers begin at the river or railroad, as on Bridge, Worthington, State and Union; and "East" and "West" are omitted from the names of these streets. On streets running from Main, but not crossing it, the numbers begin at Main. Other streets running east and west, not specified above, are numbered from the principal street out of which they run.

Court and William streets are numbered from Main towards the river, and do not have "West" prefixed. East Court and East William are distinct streets, the one last mentioned never having been accepted by the city; and hence they are numbered from Main, and "East" is not dropped from their names.

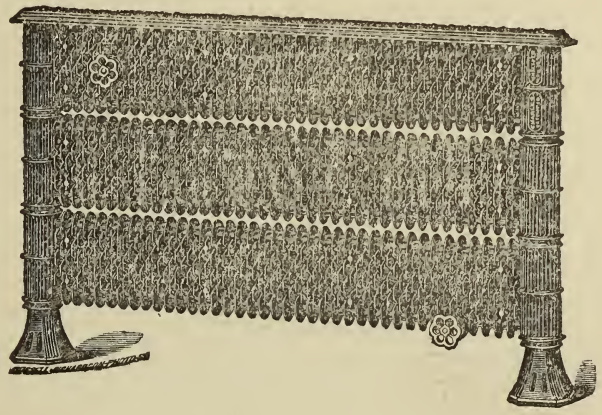
SPRINGFIELD
STEAM AND GAS PIPE WORKS.

WHITTIER'S PATENT STEAM RADIATOR.



☞ We would call the attention of those using direct radiation, to the Radiator represented above; the mechanical construction of which, we think, cannot be improved. Each single bar is cast in one piece, and the several bars are connected by nipples, giving a perfect circulation; the steam being supplied at the top and the return connected at the bottom. They are made of various sizes, and can be used with equal success for either high or low pressure.

SOLE AGENTS FOR THE

Union Low Pressure Self-Regulating Heating Apparatus

In Eastern Hampden, Hampshire, Franklin and Worcester Counties, and the State of Vermont.

To Advertisers.

The circulation of THE REPUBLICAN, both in character and extent, puts it among the very choicest advertising mediums in the country. Its Subscribers number nearly 25,000, and its readers rising one hundred thousand, and are among the most intelligent and enterprising families, farmers and business men of New England and the West. No paper out of Boston in New England has by half so large a circulation, and only two or three papers in that city exceed it.

Rates of Advertising.

Daily.—Ten cents a line one insertion, and 6 cents each after insertion; or 6 lines (one-half inch space) 50 cents for one day, and 30 cents each after insertion; 12 lines (one inch space) 75 cents one day and 50 cents each after insertion; and the same rate for longer advertisements. "Special Notices," 12 cents a line one insertion, and 8 cents a line each after insertion. "Local Notices," in leaded type, 25 cents a line each insertion. "Amusements," and extra-displayed advertisements in bold type, 12 cents a line (of ordinary type) first insertion, and 8 cents each subsequent insertion.

Semi-Weekly.—Eight cents a line one insertion, and 5 cents each subsequent insertion; "Special Notices," 10 cents and 8 cents; "Local Notices," and large type advertisements, 12 cents a line each insertion.

Weekly.—Twenty cents a line each insertion; "Special Notices," 25 cents; "Local Notices," and large type advertisements, 30 cents.

☞ All transient advertisements cash in advance.
